ST. THOMAS PRIVATE WOUNDED: PRISONER.

[Special to The Advertiser.] THOMAS, June 10.-Mrs. Knowles, 95 Hughes street, is in receipt of a letter from her son, Pte. Sam Knowles, of the first contingent. The communication is dated Gefchrie-hen, Germany, May 7, and states that he is a prisoner of war. The letter reads as follows: "I am wounded in the left shoulder by shrapnel, and was lucky to get out alive, for there were hundreds of our fellows killed. I am in the hospital. They are very good to us; of course I am a prisoner. There are eleven of us here. I will send you my address when I move. I ex-pect the people in Canada will be in a fine way about the great work of the Canadians. It is impossible to describe what it was like.'
