Quintin Warner, at Cronyn Memorial Church on Tuesday afternoon when delivering his lecture, "Moral Earnestness."

In presenting "Moral Earnestness as a serious study of the book, "The Glass of Fashion," the pastor stressed the fact that, humanity must emerge from its state of chaos into a state of rest, and of simplicity of living, which surmount the degrading influences found in times like the present.

"Though the times are opposed to us," continued the speaker, "opposed Andrew P. Trustees For Third Time Cut Estimates, Which Now Stand $865,411

ELIMINATING another $1,400 Tuesday afternoon, the board of education estimates for 1922, as submitted to City Treasurer Bell Wednesday morning, now stand at $865,411, or 13.95 mills. Although the educational mill rate in 1921 was 14.81, this year's assess ment has been increased by 20

As this makes the third time that they have submitted their estimates to the mayor and aldermen this year, the trus-tees feel that the matter will now rest. They do not expect that their proposed budget will be referred back to them for reconsideration. Should such be done, they say that they will have no recourse but to return the estimates again in much the same form. They have reduced to more than a reasonable minimum, they contend.
