HOW TO MAKE GOOD TEA.

An Expert Gives Advice on That Important Subject.

At the Grocers' and Allied Trades' exhibition in London a paper was read by Dr. Goodfellow in "Tea and Tea Drinking." The following remarks to which he gave utterance should be useful to housewives who often sin in the matter to tea-making:

The fact to be borne in mind in the preparation of a cup of tea, said the doctor, are, first, to develop the aroma;
