

Ottawa News Of The Week

Six Days' Happenings at the Capital City Briefly Told.

What Politicians are Saying and Doing and Other Things.

From Our Own Correspondent. Ottawa, March 26.—At the Mulock-Préfontaine banquet held in Toronto on Tuesday evening, Mr. George C. Grant, the successful opponent of Hon. Geo. Foster in the North Ontario by-election, was introduced and hailed as the David who slew the great Goliath.

With the hand-shake of Mr. Blair, however, "the young David who slew the great Goliath" was introduced as the victor of a $40,000, which is conspicuous by its prominence in the political arena.

GOVERNMENT TACTICS. The government endeavored to steal a march on the opposition by introducing a bill on the order paper not one of them was for the construction of a private building in the city.

DEBATING ELECTORS. One of the stands taken by the opposition is that it is quite as serious a matter to dangle a public building in the eyes of the electors as it is to dangle a cash for his vote.

BALLOT STUFFING. Mr. Robert Holmes, whose election in West Huron was the result of ballot stuffing and ballot-stealing, in 1897, was the grand old man of the party.

BONES OF CONTENTION. Small job-offices are bones of contention these days. It has been pointed out to parliament that it is better to put up cheaper buildings in country districts and thus enable to reduce the cost of the government.

UNNECESSARY BUILDINGS. Mr. W. F. V. Lean (West York) suggested that the line had arrived when the government might as well stop to construct any post office where the population of the town did not exceed three thousand.

ced three thousand. The money which would be saved in this way could be devoted to giving country schools turn-over and in the end the benefit would be incalculable. Mr. Fielding proposed any such suggestion. The minister of finance considered that such a resolution would be the death blow to rural mail delivery.

LONG NIGHT SESSIONS. There is a disposition among members of the House to adopt rules similar to those in force in British parliament. During the hot weather, which will be here in a month or two, it is very probable that one of the most important resolutions will be passed.

RAILWAY DISPUTES. Mr. A. C. Bell, of Picton, in presenting his resolution condemning the government for its neglect in regard to the railway disputes over the Ontario and Quebec lines, pointed out that the government had not done a good case.

INTERESTING FIGURES. There are some interesting figures in the annual report of the auditor-general. It contains, for instance, a statement of the amounts paid for the reception of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York.

EASTERN COLD SNAP. Sudden Changes of Temperature Keeps Weather Man Guessing. Montreal, April 4.—After the mildest March for many years, the weather was surprised when they awoke this morning to find the ground covered with snow.

BIG INCENDIARY FIRE. Half a Million Blaze in Chicago Led to Fire Bug. Chicago, April 4.—A fire tonight completely wrecked one of the large business buildings and badly damaged an adjoining one.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY. The city of Ottawa is pushing up ahead with its Carnegie library project. The beginning of the year a site-one of the best in the city—has been purchased.

MANITOBA CONVENTIONS. Conservatives Make Due Preparations for Forthcoming Contest. Winnipeg, April 4.—Conservatives have called a convention for the nomination of candidates for the legislature.

NEWFOUNDLAND AND U. S. St. Johns, Nfld., April 4.—In the legislature last night Premier Bond declared his intention to table the Hay-Donald bill providing for limited reciprocity with the United States and Newfoundland.

PHILIPPINE BANDITS. Manila, April 6.—The pursuit of bandits was interrupted by the death of a constabulary overtook and defeated the band on Saturday. Three of the constabulary were wounded.

A Report On Fernie Strike

Conciliation Committee of Mining Association Tells of Its Labors.

Negotiations Carried on in a Manner Satisfactory to All Concerned.

The conciliation committee representing the Provincial Mining Association, which was sent to Fernie to attempt to settle the disastrous coal strike, has forwarded a report of its successful endeavor to the head office of the association.

The committee appointed in convention assembled on February 28th last with instructions to proceed at once to Fernie and inquire into the strike there.

The committee was composed of Mr. J. H. Macdonald, president of the association, and Mr. W. G. G. Doughty, secretary.

Mr. Inverarity, on 8th July, 1902, asked the Medical Council to investigate the circumstances detailed by him.

There is nothing in the act which would prevent the committee from being able to investigate in a court of law.

Leniency For Verona Felier

Sentenced to Six Months Imprisonment for Uttering Confederate Bills.

Fugitive Husband Who Instigated Crimes Strongly Criticized.

Mrs. Verona Felier, the young woman of not more than seventeen years of age, was sentenced to six months imprisonment yesterday on four charges of obtaining money by false pretences, by uttering Confederate bills, by buying a small article and giving the Oriental a worthless ten dollar bill, and by receiving change in good coin.

The young woman owes her life to the fact that Detective Perdue arrested her in March, as she was preparing to leave for Vancouver, for she was actually in the police station before she was seriously ill, and a trained nurse has been with her for several weeks.

The young woman pleaded guilty, and Chief Langley recited the circumstances of the wrongdoing for which she was arraigned. He showed that the accused had obtained money from the Oriental, and that she had given the Oriental a worthless ten dollar bill, which she duped the Oriental.
