John Long, a carpenter boarding on Church street, fell forty feet from a build-ing on Grenville street, his thigh being broken. He was taken to the hospital. The public school frustees who visited Detroit have returned. They found the twelve-roomed school buildings heated by steam and the smaller one by hot air and stoves. They will report in favor of steam heating in the large schools.

Three thousand more cases of smallpox in Montreal. Now, friends, if, you will take a word of advice from one who knows the dan ger you are in, you will not use any more goods manufactured in Montreal—without any business prejudice—cigars in particular. You can get a better cigar manufactured in Toronto, and run no chances of getting the loathsqueed disease, by using the Hrave Boys and General Middleton brands. They are the stuff, both clear Havana filler. Send on your orders as soon as possible to the sole manufacturer, W. B. Dobson, 23 Church st., Toronto,—Advt 246

Those of our citizens who would like to make their homes by the lake shore, where they can enjoy the healthy breezes from old Ontario, have a certain opportunity on Saturday first, which they will never have again. On the afternoon of that day oliver, Coate & Co. will offer for sale by auction, on the ground, a property lately belonging to the Gwynne estate, which from its advantageous situation would surely have been taken up and built upon years ago had it been in the market. It lies within the municipality of Parkdale, in the southeast corner, fronting on the lake, next west of the Exhibition grounds, and with the Grand Trunk railway for its northern boundary. No other lake front this country, is attracting a good, deal of lies within the municipality of Parkdaie, in the southeast corner, fronting on the lake, next west of the Exhibition grounds, and with the Grand Trunk rallway for its morthern boundary. No other lake front so favorably situated for villa residences is now open to purchasers. Some years ago it might have been found very difficult to combine an airy lake shore residence with convenience for business in the city, but-recent developments have changed all that. The improved Grand Trunk suburban train service, the enterprise of the street car company in making extensions for the accommodation of the public, and the electric railway which is to be—all the way to the Humber—these are improvements which render it easy to do now what it might have been rather inconvenient to do some years ago. The fact is that these improvements in the way of cheap and rapid transit are changing the situation altogether. If you want to secure the site for a home near to the clear sparkling waters and the healthy breeze of Lake Ontario, you have your chance on Saturday afternoon. See advt.

Fire and Gas Matters.

The fire and gas committee met yesterday. A communication was read from the electric light association of Eigin, Illinois, asking for information regarding the cost of the system of electric light used here. A petition from R. Wilson and others was laid on the table, praying for the erection of gas lamps on Givens street. The application of Moyers & McGregor, 35 Adelaide transit water for the privilege of erecting a distinct of the streat west for the year of the restored the prevalence in the country, is attracting a good deal of attention, more especially now when there is a muco-purulent discharge, such discharge forms an idus very inviting to chief agreement of the interior, and were fively a favorable for where is a muco-purulent discharge, such chief scale and interior, more especially now when there is a muco-purulent discharge, such chief scale and interior, more especially now when there is a muco-purulent discharge, suc

A petition from the table, praying for the erection of gas lamps on Givens street. The application of Moyers & McGregor, 35 Adelaide street west, for the privilege of erecting a steam engine, and that of H. James for erecting a blacksmith forge were endorsed. A number of lamps were recommended to be erected in various parts of the city. The question of giving six months' notice the elegance of the new mantle and mourning house just opened. They certainly have some lovely goods, and their prices are low as compared with other houses. Such enterprise deserves encouragement, and The World advises ladies in search of stylish mantles or black goods to give them a call. The address is 218 Yonge street, cor. Albert street. The question of giving six months' notice to the electric light company to cancel their contract for lighting the city was rediscussed, but no decision was arrived at.

The payment of a number of accounts was approved.
