LAWRENCETOWN

Abner Phinney is engaged at carpenter work in Wolfville. Mr. Edwina Banks has gone to the hospital in Halifax for an operation.

Miss Smith, of Waterville, Maine, is the new sales lady in H.H. Whitman's store.

Mrs. Kinney has returned from Berwick, where she visited friends for a few days.

Freeman Phinney has a position in the Lawrencetown Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada.

Miss Sarah Banks, of West Inglesville, visited her cousins, Miss Grace and Jennie Daniels last week.

Miss Bella Redden, of Kentville, has been spending a week, the guest of her friend, Miss Marjorie Phinney.

Mr. Fenton Morris has sold his place in town to Mr. Clark and bought Mrs. Ada Balcom's farm on the Pitch Road.

Miss Peters has rented the rooms in Mr. Osmond Balcom's house formerly occupied by the late Mrs. Kenneth Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. Bordman Hodges, of North Dakota, are guests of Deacon and Mrs. Wm. McKeown, also Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Balcom.

Mrs. W. P. Morse is spending a few days in Bridgetown this week as a delegate to the Ladies Auxiliary, while in town she is the guest of Mrs. J. Harry Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guertin of West Somerville, Mass., have been visiting Mrs. Guertin's mother, Mrs. Martha Lake and on their return home were accompanied by Miss Madalen Lake.

Miss Winnifred Feltus, trained nurse, has been spending several weeks with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Feltus, of Amherst. A little son has been welcomed in the home—congratulations.

On Thursday afternoon the town was greatly shocked and grieved to hear of the sad drowning accident of Miss Grace Bent daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bent while bathing in the river. The grief-stricken parents and brothers have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community.

The program of the parlor concert which was held at the home of Mrs. F. B. Bishop's, on Thursday evening, was successfully carried out as follows:—

Piano Solo. Mr. W. B. Eaton Reading. Mrs. W. A. Porter Solo. Mr. F. Harris Reading. Miss Anderson Solo. Mr. J. Cross Duet (vocal), Mr. Cross and Mr. Harris.

Reading. Mrs. W. A. Porter. Duet (piano.) Mrs. R. J. Shaffner. The sum of 18 dollars was realized for Red Cross purposes.

Again we were united to welcome our returned soldiers and a reception in their honor was given on Monday evening, in the Demonstration Building Dr. J. B. Hall occupied the chair. The first on the program was a chorus "My Own Canadian Home", after which the chairman gave an eloquent address of welcome followed by a song "Welcome Home" beautifully rendered by Mrs. E. C. Shaffner and Mrs. A. H. Bishop.

Rev. F. H. Beals gave the list of college students who had paid the supreme sacrifice also a poem "My Acadia Boys" taken from the Acadia Bulletin. It was very interesting and also very pathetic to find that so many noble young men have gone never to return.

Next was a solo "The Ivy Grown Cottage by the Sea" by Miss Ethel Shaffner. Address by Rev. S. J. Boyce. Then Mr. Fenon Morris returned from overseas, gave a very interesting address, relating some of his experiences and presented Dr. Hall with a picture to be hung in the Assembly Hall.

Duet and chorus by Miss Henderson and Rev. S. J. Boyce. Mr. A. Hunt, of the Aviation Corps illustrated his remarks by pictures. At the close of the program a social time was spent, with a treat of home made candy and familiar songs.

SMITH'S COVE

Miss Alva Young spent the week end at her house in Brighton.

credit is due Mr. T. G. of Lawrencetown, for taking the matter with Graham's, and using his influence to them to establish an or plant in that town. The charge of C. H. Lowell is pushed rapidly forward and it may be in operation Oct 15th. This will be a boon for the fruit growers in and surrounding districts. The surplus stocks of fruit are being sold for ready cash. It is estimated the capacity will be 100 or more per day and from the hands will be employed. Annapolis Valley Fruit and Co. have sold one of the houses to Messrs Graham and will be used in connection with an evaporator for storage etc. We wish the most every success.
