

multate such a variety of important and, to emigrants, necessary knowledge.

In addition to the valuable papers and reports to which reference has been made, and the numerous publications quoted in the course of the compilation, the compiler has great pleasure in acknowledging his obligations to private sources, and, besides Mr. Galt, particularly to Nathaniel Gould, Esq., Deputy Governor of the British American Land Company, for the use of his very shrewd and interesting remarks in the notes which he made in his travels in the two Canadas.

The Huron Tract, in the Upper Province, having lately been strongly recommended as an advantageous spot for settlement, the compiler applied to the Canada Company for access to a Report of an Inspection of great part of it made by their order, as he is informed, and transmitted to them; but for some unassigned reason the Directors declined allowing a sight of any documents which they had not themselves printed.
