

CONTENTS.

v

CHAPTER VII.

	PAGE
My Voyage on the Huron to the Thames in the "Pioneer."
—Take in my Cargo.—Warm Welcome given to Mr. Campbell by a Highland Woman.—Irish Sonnet.—A new Acquaintance.—Specimen of Bachelor-housekeeping not recommended to Celibacy.—Mine Host sets Fire to his house par accident .—Curious Dialogue between Him and his Cook.—Excellent Supper.—Proceed on our Voyage	109

CHAPTER VIII.

We pass Goderich Harbour in the Gale.—Want of a Chart.—Lake-sickness.—Dangerous Position.—Find Ourselves among the Islands.—Dash through our Difficulties.—Harbour of Refuge.—Camp on Shore.—My Walk on this terra incognita .—Find five Steel Traps.—Miss shooting a black Fox.—Beauty of the Scenery.—Our Hilarity.—Transparency of the Waters of the Bay.—Visit of the Chippewa Indians.—Noble Salmon-trout.—In Sight of Port.—Fresh Difficulties.—Greetings from Shore.—Ship a Sea.—Cross the Bar.—Let our Anchor go.—Accident to our Cable.—Man the Boat.—Towing-line too short.—Jeopardy.—Resolve to swim ashore.—Dangerous Predicament.—Providential Preservation.—Home.—A solitary Fireside.—Return of my Wife.—Her Anxiety during my Absence.—Her Terror on seeing the Schooner stranded.—Recover my Health and Spirits under her tender Care	124
---	-----

CHAPTER IX.

I quit the Service of the Canada Company.—Leave Goderich.—Homeward Journey.—Want of Accommodation at Sebach's House.—My Landlady and her Brood.—Midnight Adventures.—Disorderly Behaviour of the young Dutch Boors.—Mine Hostess gives them a Thrashing.—Yankee Guest.—Old Hickory Jackson.—Loyal Lawyer and Yankee Fool.—The utility of Impudence.—Return Home.—Warm Welcome.—Happy Party	139
--	-----