SCOTT STAMP AND COIN COMPANY HAS LOST THOUSANDS BY SYSTEMATIC ROBBERY OF SOME OF ITS CLERKS.

After having been systematically robbed for a period covering more than two years, and after an expenditure of more than $5,000 in fees to private detectives, the Scott Stamp and Coin Company have ferreted out a band of women conspirators, who, they allege, robbed them of between $25,000 and $50,000. One of the women was arraigned in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday afternoon, and after making a complete confession was held for trial.

The Stamp and Coin Company is in business at No. 18 East Twenty-third street. Forty girls are employed to pack and distribute the foreign stamps and coins in which the company deals. The company carries a stock valued at several hundred thousand dollars. Gustav B. Calman is the president of the company.

Mr. Calman has been aware of the fact that the company has been systematically robbed for a long time, and has employed detectives, both male and female, who have worked in the distributing room with the employees, but without success. Recently he engaged ex-Chief of the Secret Service Drummond to try to ferret out the thieves, and the fruit of his labors was shown in the Jefferson Market
