der Free Church ministrations, to the of denomination. repairing of an old building confessedly faconnection with the Establishment. the frame of the new church is already erected, and the external work is in progress. It occupies a commanding posinon, and when tinished, will be an ornament to the whole shore.

nes

1001

the

our

fter

eral

n a

: to 163

elə

re.

ry:

to

133

el

4.

ın

:d

Ìý

'n

ł

ţ

đ

"Lake Porter. The body of water, cathe banks of which the inhabitants of this district reside, is properly an arm of the Atlantic. In former ages it had at hast three outlets, but by the constant scaring away of the headland by the waters of the ocean, all have been closed The inhabi-In one narrow passage. and are settled chiefly about the cenad parts of the Lake, principally upon the western bank, and along an extent deight or nine miles. About 17 or 18 hars ago, this place was in a prosperous eate; but it has greatly declined flowalvancement. There are ten or twelve tambes of Presbyterians, and about an equal number adnering nominally to the Laurch of England. Religion has long ten in a very unsatisfactory state. This may be partly accounted for by the fact that, as far as the Presbyterians are concemed, the ministerial supply has been tetetolore very limited and irregular.— Taus left without a minister and without andder, (for the two elders once in conregion with the church were unfit for terrice,) and scattered over a scanty and rocky soil, the thoughts of the peopreuring of a necessary subsistence. daming on Lake Porter. On the first Sabiath after my arrival at Lawrencethat time till the present, every third brought to Jesus depensation of the Communion there As I do not reside in the district, there tions. are no regular weekly meetings; but oc-mensions and appearance, to the present rather inconvenient in its situation, is hate of the community—and the injus nearly finished inside. It is deeded to tice of appropriating funds, collected un the Protestants of the place, irrespective Un my return from Lake Porter to Musquonoboit Harbour, I preach in the evening at the head of Chizzetcook. There are a few families there attached to our cause; and there is reason to believe that God has blessed the instrumentality employed to the conversion of some of their members.

" Musquodoboit Harbour The inhabitants belonging to this district reside not only on the harbour having this name, but also on both sides of Petpiawick Harbour, and a few on the banks of the River. A large proportion of the people, as is well known, profess to be Wesleyans. It is unnecessary here to detail the steps which led to this diversity of sentiment in a settlement once recognised as wholly Presbyterian. The Wesieyans number 13 families; the Presbyterians 26. There are a few oner, there is now a prospect of some thers nominally neutral, who incline to one side or other as influence may be brought to bear upon them.

"Before my engagement with the Presbytery, our people in this place received supply only once in six weeks .--Since that time, they have enjoyed the ordinances of God's house every third Sabbath All the people have been visited -- many of them repeatedly. The Sabbath School has been revived-a weekly prayer meeting, and a weekly Bible-class have also been established .-My labours in this place have not, I trust been altogether in vain. At our he were almost wholly directed to the last Communion, fifteen Presbyterians sat down for the first time in this place. but it is to be noped that a better day is. Of these five belonged to the adjoining districts—the remainder to this congregation. Almost all these, and others allowa I preached at the Lake, and from so, profess to have experienced a change of heart this summer. This congrega-Sabbath, except on one sacramental oc- tion now numbers forty-one communicason. Several have been awakened, cants, which number added to those of Some of these have disappointed my ex- Lake Porter and Lawrencetown gives fectations, others are in a hopeful state, our church in these three districts eighand two at least have, I trust, been ty-three members. The week-day School There has been no in this place has been of great benefit to the seitlement. It is taught by Mr. tas season. There are at least cleven Farquhar, who during his residence communicants in connexion with this here has been a stedfast friend to Prescharch. I have visited all the people byterranism. The building occupied as once, and most of them a second time. a sanctuary is owned by both denomina-

"During the month of June, I visited casionally on visiting, I preach in the e- Clamb Harbour and Pope's Harbour, reging. The church, though old and the former distant about fifteen miles,