

"KEEP WATCH"

Keep watch for the Master,
The day draweth near,
Soon, soon in His glory
My Lord will appear.
Soon, soon thou shalt hear Him
All lovingly say,
"Rise up, My beloved,
And come thou away."

Keep watch for the Master,
Glad, glad will it be,
That day when He cometh,
And calleth for thee !
Joy, joy to be ready,
Found doing His will ;
Found watching and waiting,
And serving Him still.

Keep watch for the Master,
Keep watch for the King,
Tasks many and varied
They swilt days my bring,
Sweet, sweet is His service,
But' mid its delight
Keep watch for His coming
By day and by night.

Keep watch for the Master,
While treading His ways,
Live but for His glory,
Seek nought but His graise.
Care only to hasten
His kingdom of grace,
Until, " the veil lifted,"
Thou seest His face.

EDITH G. CHERRY.