

THE OTTAWA NATURALIST.

Published by the Ottawa Field-Naturalists' Club

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
1. On Some Species of Canadian Palæozoic Corals, by Lawrence M. Lambe, F.G.S., of the Geological Survey of Canada	237
2. The Birds of King's County, Nova Scotia—Part III, by Harold Tufts, Esq., of Wolfville, Nova Scotia. Concluded	259
3. Analyses of Ice from the Ottawa District, by R. F. Ruttan, B.A., M.D., C.M., Professor of Chemistry, McGill Medical College, Montreal, Que.	263
4. Report of the Ornithological Branch of the O.F.N.C. for 1898, by the Leaders	265
5. Reports of Soirees—Second, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Soirée under the auspices of the O.F.N.C.	266
6. Notes, Reviews and Comments—Fourteenth Annual Report, Minister of Agriculture, Toronto, Ont., by C. C. James, Esq.; "On the birds of Ontario in relation to Agriculture," by C. W. Walsh, Esq., Toronto; Giant Ripple Marks, note by H. M. Ami; Fine Microscopical Material—Foraminifera for distribution—collected by Mr. G. Boyce Scott, of Moncton, N.B.; Obituary Notice, Dr. G. J. Allman, F.R.S.	269
7. New Members, List of	270
8. Index of Volume XII, OTTAWA NATURALIST for 1898-99	i-vi.

ANNUAL MEETING. O.F.N.C., TUESDAY, MARCH 14th, 8 p.m.
Y.M.C.A. Hall. Election of Officers and Reading of Reports.

OTTAWA, CANADA.

PRINTED AT THE OFFICE OF PAYNTER & ABBOTT,
48 RIDEAU STREET.