MEDICAL NEWS.

QUACKOLOGY.—Talking of Quacks, one of the most impudent of the class I ever read of was Dr. Graham, the inventor of the "Electrical Ether," the "Nervous Etherial Balsams," the "Imperial Pills," the "Liquid Amber, or Preventive Lotion," the "British Pills," and the "Bracing or Restorative Balsam." Dr. Graham assumed to be a graduate of the University of Edinburgh, and made the "Electrical Cure" his point. He opened in Pall-mall the "Temple of Health and of Hymen," in 1781-82, whither people resorted to be healed, and where, "at the electrical altar, or on the Medico-electrical throne, without shock or any kind of uneasiness, into the general system, to the seat of the disease, or only to parts particularly affected, were conveyed the pure, active, balmy, bracing, and restorative effluvia of medicines, simply, or combined with full genial tides of the electric fire or vital light, magnetic effluvia, vivifying and ethereal nitreous air, or any other of those great primary elementary principles, which are the universal pabulum or vital food of animal life, and, indeed, of universal nature!"
