

Therapeutic Notes.

GLYCERINE IN FEVER MIXTURE.

The Clinica Moderna recommends the following mixture as beneficial in allaying thirst and fever:

R Glycerini puri	ʒviiss
Acidi citrici.....	ʒss
Aquæ destil., q. s. ad.....	ʒxxv

M. Sig.: One to two tablespoonfuls at one dose to allay thirst and fever.—J. A. M. A.

CONVULSIONS IN CHILDREN.

R Moschi.....	gr. ii
Chloralis hydratis.....	gr. ivss
Camphoræ.....	gr. xv
Yolk of egg.....	ʒiiss
Aquæ.....	ʒiii

M. Sig.: As an enema when the child is unable to take treatment by the mouth.—J. Simon: Med. Rec.

HEMORRHOIDS.

The following prescriptions are recommended for the treatment of painful hemorrhoids in the Agenda Therapeutica for 1900:

Extract of esculus hippocastanum fluid.	1 ounce
Chloroform.....	1 drachm.

Morning and evening at meal times, ten to fifteen drops of this mixture is to be taken in a glass of wine or a little sweetened water; or instead:

Fluid ext. of esculus hippocastanum.....	6 drachms
Fluid extract of hamamelia.....	2½ drachms
Oil of peppermint.....	2 drops

Morning and evening at meal times, fifteen drops of this mixture may be taken in wine or sweetened water.—Therapeutic Gazette.