

482 SYPHILITIC FEVER IN A MATERNITY CASE.

mother, on September 4th, stated that sores had appeared which, from her description, were probably specific.

Treatment.—Iodoform and calomel were dusted freely over the sore, but caused so much irritation that a solution of lysol (3i, or 1 dr. to the pint) was used instead.