

Words of Warning and Comfort.

"If you are suffering from poor health or languishing on a bed of sickness, take cheer if you are simply ailing, or if you feel
'weak and dispirited.
'without clearly know-
'ing why, Hop Bitters
'will surely cure you.

If you are a minister, and have overtaxed yourself with your pastoral duties, or a mother, worn out with care and work, or a man of business or labor, weakened by the strain of your everyday duties, or a man of letters toiling over your midnight work, Hop Bitters will most surely strengthen you.

If you are suffering from over-eating or drinking, any indiscretion or dissipation, or are young and growing too fast, as is often the case,

"Or if you are in the workshop, on the farm, at the desk, anywhere, and feel 'that your system needs cleansing, toning, or stimulating without intoxicating, if you are old.

'blood thin and impure, pulse feeble, nerves unsteady, faculties waning, Hop Bitters is what you need to give you new life, health, and vigor."

If you are costive, or dyspeptic or suffering from any other of the numerous diseases of the stomach or bowels, it is your own fault if you remain ill. If you are wasting away with any form of Kidney disease, stop tempting death this moment, and turn for a cure to Hop Bitters.

If you are sick with that terrible sickness Nervousness, you will find a "Balm in Gilead" in Hop Bitters.

—If you are a frequenter, or a resident of, —a miasmatic district, barricade your system against the scourge of all countries —Malaria, Epidemic, Bilious and Inter-mittent Fevers by the use of Hop Bitters.

If you have rough skin, pimply, or sallow skin, bad breath, Hop Bitters will give you fair skin, rich blood, the sweetest breath and health. $500 will be paid for a case they will not cure or help.

A Lady's Wish.

"Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend. How?" inquired the first lady.

"By using Hop Bitters that makes pure, rich blood and blooming health. It did it for me as you observe."

None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.

Caution to Dairymen.

Ask for WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co's. Improved Bitter Colon, and take no other. Beware of all imitations, and of all other oil colors, for every other one is liable to become rancid and spoil the butter into which it is put. If you cannot get it write to us at Burlington, Vt., to know where and how to get it without extra expense. Thousands of testimonials have been made, and they always prove it the best.

It was remarkable of a young lady who was seen returning from the post-office, tearing a note into shreds as she went along, that she had been to that bourse from which note rascals return.

The people of this country have spoken. They declare by their patronage of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, that they believe it to be an article of genuine merit, adapted to the cure of rheumatism, as well as removing the pain of fractures and dislocations, external injuries, corns, bunions, piles, and other maladies.

NEW TEA AND COFFEE HOUSE.—In another column of this journal will be found an advertisement of the Canada Pacific Railway Importing Company. The object of this company is to supply dealers, agents, and others, with tea and coffee, at a very small advance on import prices, and in such packages and quantities as may be most convenient for them. The very best teas of India China and Japan are supplied, Indian teas and coffee being a specialty. This company also offer for a short time to introduce their goods into every family in Canada; most extraordinary inducements, Gold Band, and Moss Rose China Tea Sets being given away free to ladies getting up club orders for these goods. They also offer first-class Lithographic Portraits of Sir John A. Macdonald, Hon. Edward Blake, Hon. Oliver Mowat, and Her Majesty the Queen, free to every purchaser of 5 lbs., or three tins of coffee. No doubt but many of our readers will be favourably impressed with this system of doing business, and hereafter use this company's goods. Mr. J. A. McMurtry, is the company's manager in Toronto.

"I have never sold a remedy that has given such entire satisfaction as Burdock Blood Bitters; I sell more of it than of any other dollar preparation," says J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton.

The ancients thought the world was square. The nineteenth century, however, knows their is very little square about it.

A Walnut Hills girl is mad with a downtown drug clerk because when she asked him for something to hang her hair with he told her they didn't keep curry-combs.

If the stomach becomes weak and fails to perform its digestive functions, Dyspepsia with its long train of distressing symptoms will follow. Cure it with Burdock Blood Bitters.

The bone collar button has done more to release man from the tyranny of woman than all the philosophical works on humanity ever printed.

Amos Hudgin, Toronto, writes: "I have been a sufferer from Dyspepsia for the past six years. All the remedies I tried proved useless, until Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure was brought under my notice. I have used two bottles with the best results, and can with confidence recommend it to those afflicted in like manner."

The King of Portugal buttons up his coat with diamond buttons, and we still use the same old safety pins to button ours with.

Broken down conditions of the system that require a prompt and permanent tonic to build up the blood and restore failing vitality will be benefited at once by Burdock Blood Bitters.

A Family Medicine.—Over ten thousand boxes of Briggs' Life Pills are sold yearly in the Dominion of Canada, which is the best guarantee of their quality and the estimation in which they are held as a family medicine.

A New Haven man has invented a walking machine. Intended especially for actors who get "strapped" in the country.

A Run for Life.—Sixteen miles was covered in two hours and ten minutes by a lad sent for a bottle of Briggs' Electric Oil. Good time, but poor policy to be so far from a drug store without it.

The hand organ has seen 105 years since its inventor died. Verily, the evil that men do live after them.

STAR CEMENT.—Unites and repairs everything as good as new. Glass, china, stone, earthenware, ivory, wood and leather, pipes, bricks and precious stones, plates, mugs, jars, lamp glasses, chimney ornaments, picture frames, jewelry, trinkets, toys, etc.

The clothing dummy may have its garments stolen, but 'twill be sure to have its red-dress.

For worms in children, be sure and inquire for Sittler's Vermifuge Candy. The genuine article bears the signature of the proprietor on each box. The public are respectfully informed that the Vermifuge Candy can be purchased of the principal druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canada.

"Changeable Hosiery": is a fashionable novelty. Come to think of it, that is a good idea.

Have You Tried It? If so, you can testify to its marvellous power of healing, and recommend it to your friends. We refer to Briggs' Magic Relief, the grand specific for all summer complaints, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, dysentery, cramps, colic, sickness of the stomach, and bowel complaint.

Is the poet who writes cheerful songs a cheer-up-doist?

Many sink into an early grave by not giving immediate attention to a slight cough which could be stopped in time by the use of a twenty-five cent bottle of Dr. Wistar's Pulmonic Syrup.
