THE LIFE OF LORD ROBERTS, V.C. - By Sir Geo. Forrest, K.T., C.I.E. Net $4.00

This is the authoritative Life of a famous soldier. It is written by the Director of Records, Government of India, who has the distinction of having edited the principal State Papers relating to the chief Indian affairs. The aim of the author is to produce a standard Life which will give a faithful portrait of the man and also a clear account of his services in the three great events in the annals of England: the Indian Mutiny, the Second Afghan War, and the South African War.

THE SECRET OF AN EMPRESS. By the Countess Zanardi Landi, Daughter of the late

Empress Elizabeth and the Emperor Francis-Joseph of Austria - - Net $4.00
"The Times Literary Supplement," in a two-column review, says: "Her book is full of drama and sheds vivid light on many a dark spot in modern Austrian history. . . . It tells a plain, though not a simple, tale with a quiet reserve than enhances the effect of the story told. In its essence it is an indictment of Austria, or rather of 'Vienna,' the real Vienna—the Vienna of the Camarilla that surrounds the head of the State, of the secret police, of ecclesiastical influences and of ceaseless political intrigue. It is an indictment of Austria that claims, with much appearance of truth, to be based on the utterances of the late Empress Elizabeth of Austria herself."

GREAT PICTURES BY GREAT PAINTERS. Descriptive Notes by Arthur Fish. Net $5.00

So great has been the demand for our color reproductions of the famous Masters that we have arranged to produce another Series by our notable color process, on canvas screen paper, thus securing that richness and depth of tone characteristic of the paintings. The volume contains 50 pictures, size 11 x 15, mounted on mats.

IMPERIAL GERMANY: England's Influence on Her Policy and Progress. By Prince Bülow. (Popular edition). - - - - - Net, 75 cents.

"We desire," Prince Bülow says, "amicable and even friendly relations with England, but we are not afraid of hostile ones." That is significant of the frank style of the whole volume. "Imperial Germany" will tell you what Prince Bülow thinks of English Statesmanship and Character. The State Departments in his own Empire. The English Policy of Isolation. State and National Ownership. Socialism. The English Navy. The South African War. Germany's Relations with France. The Triple Alliance. Foreign Policy.

MEMORIES OF 40 YEARS - - - - - Princess Catherine Radziwill. Net $4.00

Here the reader will meet with Gladstone and Beaconsfield, Asquith and Morley, Winston Churchill and Rosebery, Ouida and Marie Corelli, Bismarck and Bülow, Moltke and Hohenlohe, Tolstoy and Witte, Kings and Emperors, Queens and Princesses, courtiers and writers, poets and politicians, leaders of society, and many notables who have influenced, from the inside, European history.

WHAT OF TO-DAY? - - - - - By Father Bernard Vaughan, S.J. Net $2.00

No more fearless preacher exists than Father Bernard Vaughan, whose trenchant sermons upon "The Sins of Society" drew all Mayfair to the famous chapel in Farm Street. In this new series of papers, which the author modestly entitles "What of To-day" Father Vaughan speaks out in no uncertain voice against the cant of culture, the decadent anti-conventionalists, the self-deceit of the casuists, the vapidity of the Simple Lifers, the shirking of marriage duties, and a hundred and one anomalies, which in these days of slipshod morality and weak-kneed sentimentality have been allowed to creep into modern life.

RECOLLECTIONS OF SIXTY YEARS IN CANADA. By Sir Chas Tupper, Bart. Net $4.00

Sir Charles Tupper has well earned the appellation of "The Grand Old Man of Canada," being the only surviving Father of Confederation, and although at the present time he is in his ninety-third year, his intellectual faculties are as active as they were during the years he spent in building up the Dominion.

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL: HIS LOVE STORY AND POLITICAL LIFE. By Katharine O'Shea (Mrs. Charles Stewart Parnell). - - Net, per set, $5.00

If the highest aim of literature be to convey not only the outer vesture, but the inner spirit of adventure, then this is literature indeed, because the reader moves through those very intimacies that make up the story of Parnell's great love-passion.

THOUGHTS AND AFTER-THOUGHTS. - - By Herbert Beerbohm Tree. Net $1.50

In his new volume the famous lessee of His Majesty's Theatre assumes a new role—that of essayist. Sir Herbert Tree writes with all that brilliance of witty epigram and shrewdness of observation which characterized most of his public utterances.
