CALENDAR FOR NEXT WEEK. November. 14, Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost, Dedication of all churches in the Archdiocese of St. Boniface. First class feast with octave. 15, Monday—St. Gertrude, Virgin. 16, Tuesday—St. Didacus, Confessor (transferred from the 13th inst.) 17, Wednesday—St. Gregory Thaumaturgus, Bishop. 18, Thursday—Dedication of the Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul. 19, Friday—St. Elisabeth of Hungary, Widow. 20, Saturday—St. Felix de Valois, Confessor.

BRIEFLETS. Rev. Father George, O.M.I., preached at St. Norbert last Sunday. There was an average of 96 patients in St. Boniface Hospital last week. The Rev. Mother General of the Grey Nuns left St. Boniface for Minneapolis last Wednesday. His Grace's health continues to improve, though he cannot receive all the visitors who call. The bazaar for St. Boniface Hospital will net about $2,500. Mr. Hutchings won the cane by a large majority.

Mrs. Arthur Clavet, of Port Arthur spent a few days in Winnipeg lately with Miss Byrne of 262 Eort St. From Malines is announced the death of the Rev. Frere Philippe, Superior-General of the Brothers of Mercy. Rev. Fr. Beaudin, O.M.I., went to Selkirk last Sunday, while Very Rev. Fr. Allard, O.M.I., V.G., was at Whitemouth. Mrs. George F. Galt and daughter, of Winnipeg, have arrived in Montreal and are the guests of Sir William Hingston.

Rev. Father Lebel, S.J., accompanied by Father Dumesnil, S.J., drove to Ste. Agathe last Thursday, returning the same evening. On Friday last the Grand Jury visited St. Boniface Hospital and were pleased with all the appointments of this admirable institution. Rev. Fr. La Rue, S. J., preached an instructive sermon on the Visibility of the Church at the Immaculate Conception last Sunday evening.

His Lordship Bishop Pascal returned to Prince Albert last Friday. He was accompanied as far as Qu'Appelle by Rev. Father Magnan, Superior of the Qu'Appelle Mission. Rev. Father Drummond will lecture in the Rat Portage opera house next Thursday evening in aid of the Indian Industrial school there. Subject: "The Reasonableness of Christianity."

About seven o'clock yesterday morning a frame house and stable east of the Seine river, St. Boniface, were burned to the ground. They belonged to Mr. James McAnnany, town councillor. Loss covered by insurance. The Marquis of Ripon in opening a Liberal bazaar the other day at Wakefield delivered a brief address in which he referred to the good feeling existing between the Colonies and this country. He attributed this to Home Rule, and said if Ireland was similarly favoured they would have an Irish Sir Wilfrid Laurier coming to England and showing his loyalty to the Queen. Rev. Father Fillion, of St. Jean, Rev. Father Campeau of St. Joseph, Rev. Father Lemieux, of Oak Lake and Rev. Father Woodcutter, of Gretna, were in town last week. It is reported that Rev. F. M. Finn, Methodist minister, is to be appointed chaplain of the Stony Mountain penitentiary at an early date. We wonder if this is in recognition of his services on the stump at the election, in Ontario, some time ago.—The Stonewall Gazette.

At Kalgowrie, in Western Australia, a correspondent of the Manchester "Guardian" says that the Church of England has a very "milk and watery service," and that "the Roman Catholic Church here" is very different, and much more like what a church should be. Catholic work, he adds, wherever one goes, is far more solid and genuine than any other.

The celebration of the Augustine Centenary at Arles, France, was marked by a noteworthy incident. Cardinal Vaughan, while preaching in French, quoted the lines of an old Provencal hymn which is very popular at Arles as a profession of Catholic Faith: "Provengau et Catouli!" At this allusion to their Catholicism, the vast audience made the Cathedral re-echo with their enthusiastic applause, which continued for several minutes.

A petition has been presented to the Tasmanian House of Assembly by Archbishop Murphy, of Hobart, and Bishop Delany, his Coadjutor, praying "that your honourable house will suggest such amendments in the Preamble of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia Bill" as will secure therein proper and reverent recognition of God as the Supreme Ruler of the World and the ultimate Source of all Law and Authority in Nations."

From the Duke of Norfolk's recent report of the Postal Department it appears that New South Wales writes more letters and post-cards per head than any other country in the world. The United Kingdom stands a good second on the list, heading the United States by nearly ten letters for each inhabitant, nearly doubling the record of Germany and trebling that of France. During the past year 32,696 letters were posted without any address at all, and these letters contained £4,692.

Notwithstanding the ingenious puffs with which Mr. D. L. Moody's arrival was heralded, the first of his meetings was not at all overcrowded. From the hints thrown out in the past month about the multitudes who would have to be turned away and about people who were willing to sit in the Brydon rink all day so as to secure a good place, one would have thought that Princess street would have been blocked hours before the magic sound of Moody's voice was heard. In point of fact there was neither rush nor crush.

Last Thursday morning at the Cathedral a solemn Requiem Mass was sung by His Lordship Bishop Pascal, O.M.I., for the repose of all the deceased members of the Congregation of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. Rev. Father Beaudin, O.M.I., was assistant priest; Rev. Father Guillet, O.M.I., and Rev. Father Dorais, O.M.I., acted as deacons of honor; Rev. Father George, O.M.I., officiated as deacon, and Abbe Maillard as subdeacon; Rev. Father Bellevue was master of ceremonies. Rev. Father George represented His Grace Archbishop Langevin, O.M.I., who was still too weak to attend. Several other members of the clergy occupied the chancel stalls, and the laity were represented by a large gathering of the elite of St Boniface.

La Presse has an appreciative interview with the Right Rev. A. Gangbran, O.M.I., bishop of the Orange Free State, South Africa, who was staying at the residence of the Oblate Fathers in Montreal. His Lordship said that in his diocese the different religious denominations lived together in peace without any of the school difficulties we are enduring here. There are under his care 10,000 Basuto neophytes and as many Zulu Catholics; these natives are taking kindly to agriculture and day labor. The reporter was evidently much impressed with the wide knowledge and the affability of His Lordship, who is accompanied by Rev. Father William D. Joyce, O.M.I., formerly well known in Winnipeg and now Rector of the Immaculate Conception Church at Lowell, Mass.

If a woman walked bare-footed on the sharp edge of a sword, she would not undergo one-tenth of the agony daily borne by thousands of women without complaint. They suffer greater misery and pain than could be inflicted by all the professional torturers that the world ever knew. Day and night they suffer from headaches, dragging down and burning sensations, pains in the sides and back, hot and cold flushes, nervous and trembling sensations and physical lassitude and mental despondency. The whole body is tortured with pain and the entire nervous system is racked. If they consult the average obscure physician, he will attribute their bad feelings to stomach, liver, kidney, heart or nervous trouble. If, by accident, he hits upon the right cause, he will insist upon the disgusting examinations and local treatment so embarrassing to a sensitive, modest woman. The real trouble is weakness or disease of the delicate and important organs that bear the burdens of maternity. There is no necessity for examinations or local treatment. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all disorders of this nature in the privacy of the home. It acts directly on the sensitive organs concerned, making them strong and well. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, soothes pain and tones and builds up the nerves. It stops exhausting drains. It banishes the discomforts of the expectant months, and makes baby's coming easy and almost painless. It restores the beauty and vivacity lost through long months or years of pain and suffering. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits. At all medicine stores. Avoid substitutes. To cover customs and mailing only, send 31 one-cent stamps for paper-covered copy, or 50 for cloth-bound copy, of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

St. Boniface College. THE ONLY Catholic College In America... That competes annually with half a dozen Protestant Colleges & Collegiate Institutes. In proportion to the number of its pupils, St. Boniface College ...

Has Won... More Scholarships Than any of its Protestant Competitors.

Read the following extract from the NORTHWEST REVIEW, July 8th, 1897:— The students of St. Boniface College came off with even more than usual success. They captured the two scholarships for Greek, Achille Rousseau, of the previous year, winning the coveted $ 40 over 26 competitors from his own and other colleges, and Jean Arpin the corresponding $ 25 in the Preliminary over twenty competitors. As our candidates numbered only eight against forty from three other colleges, this double victory redounds greatly to their credit. Moreover Achille Rousseau was fourth out of seventy-seven in Latin and Algebra. Antonin Dubuc was first out of one hundred and thirty from St. Boniface, Winnipeg, Portage La Prairie, Brandon and Regina, in the Latin of the Preliminary. The French and History scholar of $ 80 in the previous year, won by Fortunat Lachance. In the Latin course of Mental and Moral science, Marius Cinq-Mars took his B. A. degree with first class honors and the Silver Medal, while Noel Bernier and E. J. Golden divided the two scholarships in the Junior B. A. year, receiving $ 100 each. The only other student in this year, Gustave Rocan, obtained first class marks in all the honor papers of his course. The St. Boniface candidates maintained their long established reputation for thoroughness in the past subjects, Cinq-Mars being second out of twenty-eight in Latin and first out of thirty-three in Physics. Not one of the St. Boniface men failed in anything. TERMS:—Boarders $13.00 a month. Day pupils 3.00 " Apply to THE REV. THE RECTOR, The College, St. Boniface, Man.
