

ARTICLE 6

Capital Punishment

Extradition may be refused when the offence for which extradition is requested is punishable by death under the laws of the requesting State and the laws of the requested State do not provide such punishment for the conduct constituting the offence, unless the requesting State gives such assurances as the requested State considers sufficient that the death penalty shall, if imposed, not be executed.

ARTICLE 7

Postponement of Surrender

When the person sought is being proceeded against or is serving a sentence in the requested State for an offence other than that for which extradition is requested, the requested State may surrender the person sought or postpone his surrender until the conclusion of the proceedings or the service of any sentence that may have been imposed.

ARTICLE 8

Extradition Procedures

1. The request for extradition shall be made through diplomatic channels and shall be supported by the following:
 - (a) information concerning the identity, description, and location of the person sought;
 - (b) a statement of the facts of the case, and
 - (c) a statement of the laws of the requesting State describing the offence and the punishment therefor.
2. Where the request for extradition is for a person accused of an extradition offence it shall also be supported by:
 - (a) a copy of the warrant of arrest, and
 - (b) such evidence as, according to the laws of the requested State, would justify his arrest and committal for trial if the offence had been committed within its jurisdiction including evidence showing that the person sought is the person to whom the warrant of arrest refers.
3. Where the request for extradition is for a person convicted of an extradition offence it shall be supported by:
 - (a) a copy of the certificate of conviction or a copy of the judgement or order of conviction; and
