

Confidence Building Must Be Seen as an Iterated Process.....	28
The Peace Process Must Involve the Smallest Number of Players.....	28
Confidence Is Best Developed Under Existing Political Structures.....	29
Critical Resources Must Be Forthcoming.....	29
Disputants Must Have Confidence in Mediators and Peacekeepers.....	30
ISSUES IN BUILDING CONFIDENCE.....	31
Is Disarmament a Necessary Priority in the Process of Building Confidence?.....	31
To What Extent Should the International Community Involve Itself in Building Confidence?.....	34
SECURITY BUILDING MEASURES IN AFRICA.....	36
Democracy and Power-Sharing.....	36
Economic Development.....	37
Microdisarmament.....	37
CONCLUSIONS: POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CANADA.....	38
Questions of Resources, Expedience and Patience.....	38
Look to Indigenous Means of Conflict Resolution.....	38
Assist in Providing Appropriate and Credible Mediation Services.....	39
Assist in the Provision of Technologies to Assist Verification and Control.....	39
Assist in the Provision of Communications Technologies.....	39
Facilitating, Assisting Logistics During Negotiations.....	39
Providing Funds or Expertise in Uncovering and Destroying Weapons and Weapons Caches.....	40
Encourage Generalized Development.....	40