

(C) CHANGES IN THE CANADIAN EXTERNAL SERVICE

1. Major General Victor W. Odlum, General Officer Commanding Second Canadian Division, has been appointed High Commissioner for Canada in the Commonwealth of Australia. General Odlum will proceed to Canberra from London via the Middle East, in order to see something of Australian troops in the field of operations, before taking up his new post.

2. Mr. A.F.W. Plumptre has been appointed Financial Attache at the Canadian Legation in Washington, in place of Mr. James Coyne who has returned to Ottawa. Mr. Plumptre will also act as the representative of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board in Washington.
