

JOHN MAURICE HARRINGTON

Mr. Harrington was born in England on March 14, 1924. He studied at the University of Western Ontario and the London School of Economics.

After teaching economics for a year at St. Francis Xavier University, Mr. Harrington joined the Department of External Affairs in 1950. He has served abroad at the Canadian Embassy in Belgrade, at the Canadian High Commission, London, and as Counsellor at the Canadian Embassy, Tokyo. At departmental headquarters he has had assignments in Economic Division, in Far Eastern Division and at present he is Director of Pacific Division.

Mr. Harrington is married and has one son.

THOMAS PAUL MALONE

Mr. Malone was born in Edmonton on February 8, 1915. After studies at the University of Alberta and a Commonwealth Press Union exchange fellowship in Britain and Australia in 1938, he worked as a journalist in Edmonton and Vancouver. During the war he served on the Wartime Information Board and was Press Attaché at the Office of the Canadian High Commission to Australia.

Mr. Malone joined the Department of External Affairs in 1946 and has served abroad in Australia, the United States and The Netherlands, as well as in Iran as Ambassador and in Nigeria as High Commissioner. In Ottawa he has worked in various divisions of External Affairs and since 1970 has been Deputy Commandant and External Affairs Member of the Directing Staff, National Defence College, Kingston.

Mr. Malone is married and has five children.