

their own system.

Dependance on water supply may well turn ploughshares into swords, round about 1927, that mysterious year of which we stand in awe.

well. I've let my pen run & you must forgive me.

With love from Bessie & me

Selma Shuttleworth King