

CONTENTS.

xiii

	PAGE
. . .	349
. . .	352
there . . .	354
. . .	355
affectionate . . .	356
. . .	358
. . .	359
Plantations	360
l. Referred . . .	363
. . .	363
colonies upon . . .	364
. . .	364
n the Uni- . . .	365
ished mem- . . .	367
. . .	368
. . .	369
duties . . .	371
. . .	373
Culpepper. . . .	375
mission for- . . .	376
s . . .	377
. . .	378
ning terri- . . .	379
. . .	380
with regard . . .	381
. . .	382
. . .	383
ia. Wil- . . .	384
rievances. . . .	388
. . .	389
. . .	391
. . .	392

	PAGE
MARYLAND. The Rev. Mr. Yeo's Letter concerning our
Church there . . . . .	394
M'Mahon's unfair imputations on the Clergy . . . . .	396
Answer of the Privy Council Committee . . . . .	397
Endowments of land for the Church given by individual mem-
bers. Difficulties of the province . . . . .	398
The Proprietary government abolished . . . . .	400
Remarks thereon . . . . .	401
The Church of England established in Maryland. Number of
the Clergy . . . . .	402
Defective character of such legislation. Nicholson governor.
His character . . . . .	403
Churches erected. Dr. Bray, Commissary. His previous ser-
vices at home . . . . .	404
His institution of Parochial Libraries extensively established
abroad . . . . .	405
And at home . . . . .	406
The like spirit in any age, an index of true Christian zeal . . . . .	407
Bray embarks for Maryland, Dec. 12, 1699. Mainly instru- mental in establishing THE SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING
CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE, before he left England . . . . .	408
And also in establishing THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGA-
TION OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS, after his return . . . . .	410
Religious divisions in Maryland . . . . .	411
Bray's ministrations there . . . . .	412
Objectionable clause introduced into the Act for establishing
the Church . . . . .	413
Bray's conduct respecting it . . . . .	414
Bray's Visitation at Annapolis . . . . .	415
His proposal to send a minister to Pennsylvania . . . . .	416
His continued efforts in behalf of Maryland, after his return to
England . . . . .	417
Hewetson Commissary. Bray's subsequent efforts for the conversion and education of the Negroes . . . . .	418
D'Allone's benefaction towards the same object. 'BRAY'S
ASSOCIATES' . . . . .	419
His efforts to obtain a bishop for Maryland . . . . .	420