

FARMERS' INSTITUTE MEETINGS.

Public meetings will be held under the auspices of the West Durham Farmers' Institute as follows :

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 6 AFTERNOON,

at 1.30 p. m., to be addressed by

Major James Sheppard, Queenston,

SUBJECT :--"Corn Growing and the Silo." Mr. John Osborne, Bowmanville, to lead the discussion.

Mr. J. G. Davidson, Collingwood,

SUBJECT :--"Nutritive Ratio of Foods Grown and Fed on Farm." Mr. T. Baker, County Councillor, Solina, to lead the discussion.

IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBER, BOWMANVILLE

EVENING,

at 7.30 p. m., to be addressed by

Major JAMES SHEPPARD, Queenston,

SUBJECT :--"Four Reasons Why We Till the Soil." Mr. R. E. Osborne, Ebenezer, to lead the discussion.

Mr. J. G. DAVIDSON, Collingwood,

SUBJECT :--"Soils of Farm and Their Treatment." Mr. L. M. Courtice, Reeve of Darlington, to lead the discussion.

IN THE SONS' HALL, COURTICE

A MUSICAL PROGRAM EXPECTED.

DIRECTORS :--BOWMANVILLE : A. E. Bellman, J. M. Jones, W. E. Pollard, M. A. James, R. Foster, J. Jeffery, W. Law, R. Jarvis, and James Gale. DARLINGTON : R. E. Osborne, H. J. Werry, Thos. Baker, H. C. Hoar, I. L. Brown, J. J. Smith, Geo. A. Stephens.

The deputation are interesting speakers and very profitable meetings are expected. Freedom of discussion allowed. Everybody welcome.

J. M. JONESS, President.

H. C. HOAR, Secretary.

Bowmanville, Nov. 23rd, 1899.

Parties receiving this bill will please post up in a conspicuous place.

(Statesman Publishing House.)