GIANTS AND PHILLIES BATTLE TO A TIE ST. MARY'S READY FOR GOOD SPORT

a big fair in July it was impossible to conduct a running meet there during the summer.

Under the Scudder decision eminent attorneys have advised the racing interests that they can proceed without fear of prosecution for alleged violations of the so-called directors' liability law. The Scudder decision also permits oral betting between individuals, the laying or odds, the acceptance of a wager which may be recorded by the bettor.

Not long ago, it is said that two prominent members of the Jockey Club called on Gov. Sulzer at Albany and explained the plans for a renewal of the sport. According to the story told in Albany Gov. Sulzer informed the turfmen that so long as it was clear that the racing interests were willing to spend money to place the turf on a high plane and also to rebuild the thorobred industry he would not interfere. But if the gambling element was allowed to dominate the tracks he would take measures to have new legislation passed.

A concert by local artists under the definition of H. E. Illingworth, A.R.C.O., will be given in the Methodist Church on Thursday, April 24.

An illustrated address will be given by Dr. Annie Backus of Aylmer on "The Physical Development of the Child," under the auspices of the Woman's Institue, in the town hall, on Tuesday evening, April 29. A good program will be given by Mrs. Provan sr., Dr. Knox and Mr. Tovell, also an address by George H. Dayis, township clerk, Belton, for furnishing material and erecting a number of bridges in the Township of West Nissouri.
