TIMBER LIMIT TRANSACTIONS.

It is reported that R. A. Klock, of Montreal, formerly of Klock Bros., Aymer, Que., has purchased from the Chisholm Estate, of Hamilton, a timber limit situated on the east branch of the Lievre river, the consideration being about $60,000. It is about 800-square miles in extent and will give logs suitable for the manufacture of square and waney timber.

Further particulars are to hand regarding the purchase by the Rat Portage Lumber Company of the timber limits and saw mill of W. L. Tait, of Vancouver B.C. The timber lands involved contain about 6,000 acres, and the logging plants and mill are included in the bargain. The sale was effected through G. W. Campbell, of Winnipeg. The Rat Portage Lumber Company will market the product of the mill throughout Manitoba and the North-West Territories.

S. A. Fisher, of the Michigan Land & Lumber Company, is reported to have sold his timber holdings and interest in the plant of the company at Blind River, Ont., to Alexander McEwan and R. B. Dolson, of Bay City. The mill has a stock of 20,000,000 feet of logs for the coming season.
