

CONTENTS.

PART I.

CHAP.	PAGE.
List of Authors,	xi
I.—Relationship between the baptism of John and Christian baptism,	I
Ephesian disciples not baptized by John,	7
II.—Old Testament sprinklings examined,	9
“Divers Washings” examined,	11
III.—Sprinkling and pouring sometimes denote God’s anger,	16
IV.—Argument on en hudati —with water—considered,	18
V.—Baptism of the Holy Spirit,	26
Absurdity of substituting pouring, shedding forth, etc., for baptize,	28
VI.—Baptism of fire,	31
VII.—Act of John’s baptism, physically considered,	38
Admissions and excuses of Pedo-baptists,	40
John baptizing in Ænon,	42
VIII.—Commission,	44
Dr. Beecher shows why baptizo was not translated,	47
Schluesner’s definition of baptizo ,	48
Syllogisms on the commission,	49
IX.—Baptism of the three thousand at Pentecost,	50
“Want of time and water difficulty (?)” examined,	51
X.—Eunuch’s baptism,	53
“He shall sprinkle many nations” examined,	54
12 Examples of eis before water,	58