and attachment to it, and be for ever remembred with the highest gratitude, by all who shall be employed in it. As these were the generous rewards of past exploits, they will be likewise the noblest incentives, and surest pledges of the future. That Your GRACE's eminent talents, magnanimity, and disinterested zeal, whence the Public has already reaped such signal benefits, may in all times prove equally successful in advancing the prosperity of Great-Britain, is the ardent wish of,

My LORD,

Your GRACE's

Most obedient,

Most devoted,

AND

Most humble Servant,

RICHARD WALTER.
