We hope our fair friends will not, at this season, overlook the delightful employment of cultivating flowers. Every one may have a few, and the taste once acquired, will not readily be relinquished. A woman destitute of a love for flowers, seems a mistake of nature—the delicate, the fragile, and the beautiful, should have sympathies with all in nature that possesses the same qualities. The time spent on their cultivation is in no sense of the word wasted. They contribute to our pleasures; they add to our knowledge of nature; they unfold to us the mysteries of the beautiful, and tend to humanize and elevate
