

- (d) "emergency" means war, invasion or insurrection, real or apprehended.
- (g) "naval establishment" includes officers' quarters, barracks, dockyards, victualling yards, naval yards, factories, rifle and gun ranges, naval colleges, and all other buildings, works and premises under the control of the Minister, constructed or set apart for the Naval Service;
- (h) "Naval Forces" means those naval forces organized for the defence and protection of the Canadian coasts and trade, or engaged as the Governor-in-Council may from time to time direct;
- (i) "Naval Service" includes His Majesty's service in respect of all naval affairs of which by this Act the Minister is given the control and management, and also the Fisheries' Protection Service, Hydrographic Survey, tidal observations of the coasts of Canada, and wireless telegraph service;
4. The Command in Chief of the Naval Forces is declared to continue and be vested in the King, and shall be exercised and administered by His Majesty, or by the Governor-General as His representative.
7. The Minister shall have the control and management of all naval affairs, including the purchase, maintenance and repair of the ordnance, ammunition, arms, armouries, stores, munitions, and habiliments of war intended for the use of the Naval Service.
8. The Minister shall have the control and management, including the construction, purchase, maintenance and repair, of naval establishments and of ships and other vessels for the Naval Service.
11. Governor-in-Council may organize and maintain a permanent naval force.
19. The Naval Reserve Force shall consist of such persons as join the said reserve after naval service or after undergoing such training as may be prescribed. All members of the said reserve shall be liable to active service upon an emergency.
22. The Governor-in-Council may place the Naval Forces or any part thereof, on active service at any time when it appears advisable so to do by reason of an emergency.
23. In case of an emergency the Governor-in-Council may place to the disposal of His Majesty, for general service in the Royal Navy, the Naval Service or any part thereof, any ships or vessels of the Naval Service, and the officers and seamen serving in such ships or vessels, or any officers or seamen belonging to the Naval Service.
24. Whenever the Governor-in-Council places the Naval Service or any part thereof on active service, as provided in the two preceding sections, if Parliament is then separated by such adjournment or prorogation as will not expire within ten days, a proclamation shall issue for a meeting of Parliament within fifteen days, and Parliament shall accordingly meet and sit upon the day appointed by such proclamation, and shall continue to sit in like manner as if it had stood adjourned or prorogued to the same day.
25. When the Governor-in-Council declares that an emergency has arisen in which it is expedient for the public service that His Majesty should have control of any dock, shipyard, pier, wharf, machine shop, repairing or salvage plant, factory, warehouse, store or other building the Minister may, by warrant under his hand, empower any person named in such warrant to take possession thereof in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, and to use it for the service of His Majesty in such manner as the Minister directs, and all persons, officers, servants and employees employed thereon shall obey the directions of the Minister in connection with the management or operation thereof.
26. The Governor-in-Council may organize and maintain a force to be called the Naval Volunteer Force.
27. The Naval Volunteer Force shall consist of officers and seamen raised by voluntary engagement from among seafaring men and others who may be deemed suitable for the service in which such volunteers are to be employed.
31. In an emergency the Governor-in-Council may order and direct that the Naval Volunteer Force, or such part thereof as may be deemed necessary, shall be called into active service, and the naval volunteers so called out shall be liable to serve under such regulations as may be prescribed.
32. There shall be an institution for the purpose of imparting a complete education in all branches of naval science, tactics and strategy.
33. Such institution shall be known as the Naval College of Canada, and shall be located at such place as the Governor-in-Council may determine.
37. The Minister may lay down targets, buoys and other appliances for target practice by the vessels in the Naval Service, and may also provide rifle ranges suitably equipped for the use of the Naval Service at or near any port or any naval establishment.
