Certain Objections

It is because so wide and gracious to us are the possibilities of the future; so impossible is a return to the past, so deadly is a passive acquiescence in the present, that to-day we are found everywhere raising our strange new cry—"Labour and the training that fits us for labour!"

we know stretches, d guide its past. It lived in that both bitterness;

man shall with man, to hand, they shall than any reated by their own aw a new arth; but and co-

UNWIN BROTHERS, LIMITED, THE GRESHAM PRESS, WOEING AND LONDON.