INDIANS WANT TO VOTE.

Son of Mississaga Chief a Caller on Premier Whitney,

Johnstone Paudash, whose father is head chief of the three tribes of the Mississaga Indians, called on Premier Whitney yesterday. These tribes are located at the reserve situated at Rice Lake, Mud Lake and Sougog Lake. Paudash has been representing them in matters coming before the Dominion and provincial governments. His present errand was in connection with the intention of the tribes to memorialize the government to give them the franchise in provincial affairs.

Under Sir John Macdonald they had this privilege, but the adoption of the local Franchise Act deprived them of Under Treaty No. 9 the Dominion government has rendered their account to the province for payments amounting to $10,588, made to the Indians in the district north of the height of land, and east to the Quebec boundary. This is in addition to a previous payment for the year 1906. The amount is larger for last year, as the initial payment was at the rate of $8 a head, while in future it will be only $4. The aver-
