FIVE MILLIONS ARE STARVING

The Famine in East European Russia is Worse Than it Was During That of 1891-92.

RELIEF AGENTS GET RELIEF MONEY

And the Prices for Seed Grain Are So High That the Peasants Cannot Sow Their Crops.

London, June 14.—While famine is now threatening the southern province of Russia, the correspondent of The Times at St. Petersburg writes that the condition of the seven provinces of East European Russia is worse than it was during the famine of 1891 and 1892.

"Quite half a population of 11,000,000," he says, "are undergoing terrible suffering and starvation and disease and the authorities everywhere appear incapable and unprepared to deal with the calamity. Money is squandered in a mad race to get relief agents, and owing to the high prices which the Government charges for seed corn, no encouragement is given to peasants to till the ground.

"It is unnecessary to quote the harrowing details received from the relief agents. These could add nothing to the stern significance of the statement made by a Russian of authority in one district in the Government of Kazan, that not one child born there this year is now alive."

DR. CAMPBELL'S MODERATOR JUNIOR SCHOLARS AT DRILL

The Renfrew Divine Beat Dr. Milligan of Toronto and Dr. Bryce of Winnipeg.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY Opened at Hamilton Yesterday—Very Satisfactory Reports for the Past Year.

Hamilton, June 14.—(Special.)—The 25th Annual Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada has begun its deliberations. Central Church is the scene and in the handsome school house, next door, the various committees are supplied with room.

There are also the assembly clerk's office, postoffice and office for registering. About 400 commissioners are expected. The following were the early arrivals this morning: Rev. Dr. Warden of Toronto, clerk of the assembly; Dr. Campbell of Montreal, second clerk; Prof. McLaren, Knox College, Toronto; Dr. Morrison, Halifax; Dr. Moore, Ottawa; Dr. Grant, Kingston; Dr. Fraser, Toronto; Dr. McTavish, Toronto; and Robert Murray, editor of the Presbyterian Witness, Halifax.

The business assembly includes the usual reports of the standing committees. Ever since the union of 1876 the Home Mission committee has had the presidency over the Home Mission Committee of the western district. His death in October necessitated the appointment of a successor as convener of the home mission work. There is a proposal before the assembly to alter the duties of Rev. Dr. Robertson, who at present is superintendent of missions west of Lake Superior. It is now suggested that Dr. Robertson spend the greater part of his time in visiting the whole church and in stirring up and deepening the interest in home mission work generally.

It is understood that the past year has been one of the most satisfactory in the history of the church, not only with respect to home mission funds but also as regards the finances of all the other missions and schemes of the church. The Home Mission committee has been able to raise a revenue for the work of the year and also to lay aside as a reserve for the maintenance of the Home Mission Committee the surplus amounting to $30,000.

The Foreign Mission Committee will submit an encouraging report. So largely have the Home Mission committee been able to raise a revenue for the work of the year and also to lay aside as a reserve for the maintenance of the Home Mission Committee the surplus amounting to $30,000.

ALL IS READY FOR A BIG BATTLE TO-DAY

Col. Denison spent the day in camp. He thinks Major-General Hutton is the best man Canada's militia has yet had.

The 12th and 31st Battalions had muster parade this morning. One captain was annexed when a private came to him for half a pound of mustard for the parade. He had been 'put on'.

Sergeants-major have, contra to other years, to drill at headquarters.

Sergeant-Captain Alderson has arrived in camp. He is instructing the medical corps in the latest ideas from the Old Sod. The military tattoo is expected to be a big affair. Programs are being printed in Toronto. Capt. Grierson of No. 3 Co., 34th Battalion, is at the head of the committee in charge. A space will be enclosed by means of ropes. Each band will march by the side of the other. The first one takes up the march of the second band, and so on to the end till the last band enters playing a tune that all join in. The 4th Highlanders' pipers will be on hand. Fireworks will be set off behind the bands continuously.

At a meeting of the officers of the 24th Battalion to-night, the regimental band was changed from No. 3 Company to No. 4, with George Maguire as leader.

Two for One Is the amount of trading stamps you will receive at the Bon Marche for the next eight days. To-morrow they commence their great eight days' red letter sale, and although everything is being marked down to its lowest price, every purchaser of dry goods will be given double trading stamps. Every collector should make a note of this. Another point in this firm is going out of business for sure in six weeks more, the goods have to go at low prices, and it is only reasonable for the people to expect great bargains during the next six weeks.

The order that urges this move comes from the chief of police by telegram at 8 a.m., June 15. It reads: "Push forward at once, seize Queenston Heights, and, if possible, occupy Clifton."

The forces at the disposal of Major-General Hutton are: First Niagara Brigade, commanded by Lieut.-Col. Lessard; artillery, first section, A Battery, R.C.A., represented by 24 soldiers; 3rd Infantry Brigade (3 battalions); 4th Infantry Brigade (3 battalions).

The force at the disposal of the enemy are one cavalry regiment, represented by a Squadron, R.C.D.; 4 Infantry battalions, 1st section, 1st Infantry Brigade.

The attack on the Heights will be made at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, but the whole army will be in readiness to start at any moment when they will be ordered to march towards the attacking point. The order may be given at any time, and every soldier is being got ready, for none knows, except General Hutton, what an hour may arrive.

Orders have been given for food to be conveyed to the Heights, where the men will be camped to-night.

The Casualty Drill Casualties drill will be made a special feature. Each man falls from the "let-us-suppose" bullets of the enemy, will have a tag placed upon him and be conveyed to the rear, where he will be bandaged and treated just as if he was seriously wounded.

All afternoon to-day stretcher drill was being performed by a large squad, and the men were drilled in the way of stretcher drill. A hospital formed of a marquee will be pitched and used as a dressing station.

The men will each receive 20 rounds of blank ammunition, and in some cases 40 rounds of live ammunition. The men will be drilled in the way of stretcher drill.

Bayonets will be fixed when the attacking force is within a short distance of the enemy on the Heights.

"Cease fire" will be sounded before 1 p.m. on the roof.

The Line of Attack The line of attack has been given out to the commanding officer of the 1st Major-General. The 4th Brigade will be close to the river and will proceed direct upon the enemy's position. The 3rd Brigade will have a shorter distance to traverse and is ordered to proceed by the river bank. The cavalry will make a detour around by St. Catharines, and come up in the rear of the enemy's position. The 1st Major-General will scout past the reserve force of the 1st Major-General, and the 2nd Major-General will have a ride for their life.

Orders for To-day Niagara, Ontario, June 14 (Special).—The one and only theme for discussion in the camp to-night is to-morrow's battle between the blue and the red army. The 10 o'clock orders were issued that the 1st Infantry Brigade will march by the Niagara river, and the 2nd and 3rd Brigades will be ready at a point where the Michigan Central crosses the G.T.R., about one mile south of the foot of the main line.

The 3rd Brigade will march at 7:30 a.m. on Thursday, and the 2nd and 1st Brigades will march at 8 a.m. The 4th Brigade will march at the foot of the river, and rendezvous at the foot of the river, and rendezvous at the foot of the river.

Troops will supply themselves with one man's food and in second line of regimental transport.
