Court of Revision.

At to-day's Court of Revision a $7000 personalty assessment against the W. E. Sanford Company was struck off. On $41,000 assessed against the T. H. Pratt Company's North James-street property $10,000 was struck off. From the $18,000 personalty of the same firm $8000 was struck off. Rev. W. B. Caswell, pastor of Handra Catholic Union of this city will tender a complimentary dinner on Tuesday, Nov. 18, to Mgr. Diomede Falconio, Apostofic Delegate to Carada, the newly-elected first vice-president, also spoke. The treasurer's report stated that there was a small balance to the good in the treasury.

COMMISSION AT NORTH BAY. Will Be a Terminus.

This morning Judge Snider made an order committing Dr. Peter B. Wood to fail for contempt of court. The doctor failed to attend the Judgment Summons Court on two occasions. He is at present in New York. His Honor also gave judgment in the motion heard yesterday for interim alimony in the case of Cohoe v. Cchoe. He decided in favor of the plaintiff, and ordered that the wife be paid $15 a week from the time that the writ was served on the husband till the trial. He directed that the case go to trial at the December Assizes at Brantford. He also allowed disbursements in the case, they to be taxed by the court clerk. He declined to allow counsel fee, however. The defendant is very wealthy, and resides at present in Brantford.

G. S. Kerr moved for speedy judgment in the High Court suit of Dick v. Potts, an action for $510 on a mortgage. No defence was put in, and judgment was given for the amount.

Friday Night.

WARM CONTESTS FOR OFFICES

William Fitzgerald is First Vice-President and J. B. Le Roy

The annual meeting of the Ward Conservative Association in Dingman's Hall on Friday night, for the election of officers, was as unanimous as anyone could have desired. The various offices were all keenly contested, and the utmost of good feeling prevalled.

For the position of president there were two nominations—John Wickett, the occupant of the office and Ald. W. T. Stewart. The latter was elected.

Others elected were: First vice-president William Fitzgerald: second vice-

A a medicine will undouttedly take an important place in the future where Kola happens to be rare. Such value is set upon it that for the dry powder of the nut an equal weight of gold dust is given in exchange, it seems admirably suited to the case of invalids, who require something strengthening without having an appetite to taste food. The Kola corebined with Celery and Pepsin is a positive cure for indigestion and dyspepsia, also recommended highly for Asthma, constipution, liver complaint and Rheumatism. It restores pure blood, good appetite and natural sleep.
