The most honest man in the city of London has been discovered. It happened this way: A local scribe while pursuing his course along Richmond street today perceived in his path the munificent sum of 1 cent, which he litted into his pecket. Proceeding a few paces along his beat his conscience suddenly smote him, and demanded that the money be returned to its rightful owner. With this end in view he hied himself to the local police station, strode up to the sergeant on duty at the desk and threw down the coin with an explanation regarding the find.

But, horrors! The copper refused to cop the copper. When he had recovered from the shock the reporter large for a discharged soldier named heard the sergeant in the far-off distance mumble: "Keep it; the coin may bring you luck." The object of Diogenes' search has been located, and before leaving police her quarters the honest one left a description of this find with the police, in case an owner turned up.

COWAN IS WANTED.—As the result of a communication from John Lessard, Edmonton, Alta., local police are search-ling for a discharged soldier named Cowan, believed to be visiting his mother in this city. Cowan, whose first name is not given, was a member of the 27th Canadian Battalion from Winnipeg. Lessard desires to learn of his whereabouts find with the police, in case an owner turned up.

If Farmers Do Not Soon Increase Supply For Market.

If farmers do not bring more hay to the market than they have brought during the past few weeks, there will be some hayless days for many horses in this city.

Ordinarily, the consumption of hay in this city.

Ordinarily, the consumption of hay in London amounts to 75 loads per week. Last week only 28 loads passed over the scaled at the market. A little better record is, shown this week, as 27 loads have been sold. Before automobiles were used in such great numbers, the weekly consumption of this farm product was 100 loads. Except for a few tons received this week, the C. P. R. barns, where 48 horses are kept, is without hay. At this place four loads are used each week. Private citions are having a harder time getting this horse food than compenies are having.

One north end citizen went out, into the country and hauled a load with his own team. Another has been meeting the loads at the city limits. He did not meet with success, however, for every farmer that he met informed him that his hay had been purchased.

Farmers have their crops stored in the barns, and as they are busy on the farm, they are not bringing the product to the city. Another reason is the scarcity of corn and barley straw. The grass is not said to be in very good condition either.

Only a month ago, new hay was selling at $16 to $18 per ton, but today there is a brisk demand for it at $23 to $26.

FORD LIBEL SUIT GOES TO THE JURY AFTER THREE MONTHS

Gives Jurymen Lengthy Instructions.

Mount Clemens, Mich., Aug. 14.—The jury which for three months has been hearing testimony and arguments in Henry Ford's $1,000,000 libel suit against Henry Ford's $1,000,000 libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune, retired today to consider its verdict.

Judge Tucker instaucted the jury that "the right of fair comment" is expected in the case of Mr. Ford, because his position as a great employer of labor and entry as a propagandist into the discussion of the preparedness question made him a public character. The judge teld that a newspaper has no greater privileges in making comment than has an individual.

The jury was instructed further to dismiss the case against the Solomon News Company, which on a purely technical charge that it distributed in Michigan 208 copies of the Tribune issue of June 23, 1916, containing the alleged libelous editorial headed, "Ford Is An Anarchist," was made a co-defendant, Counsel for the plaintiff, at the opening of the case, announced that, as the Solomon Bros. distributed the paper in ignorance of its contents, no damages were sought.

Castor Oil, Ugh!

OR many years most mothers have known that Fletcher's Castoria is the only ready-at-hand substitute for Castor Oil, yet there are mothers who do not know. Few mothers there are who know that the seeds from which old-fashioned, out-of-date Castor Oil is extracted are to a degree poisonous and when eaten set up a severe inflamation of the digestive organs.

In its most refined form the Oil is rarely used now for Infants and Children on the advice of up-to-date physicians, and the purest Castor Oil to be had still has the nauseating, griping, distressing qualities that to the little-one make the remedy worse than the ailment.

Every physician understands this and freely recommends Fletcher's Castoria as they have been familiar with its use for the ailments of Children for over thirty years and in all that time it has served them well.

Its ingredients, in their common English names, are on every wrapper that all may know of what it is composed. There is no secret. It is just a happy combination for the little-ones and its use will make happy mothers.
