Motorman Should Control. The jury in the county court, before Judge Morgan, yesterday awarded James Greenfield $150 damages in his action for $200 against the Toronto Street Railway, for injuries sustained by being struck by a street car on

The plaintiff declared that while driving his team east along Bloorstreet his wagon was struck by a car and that the collision was directly due to the negligence of the motorman.

To the jury his honor said that a motorman should always be in perfect control of his car, and that he had no more right to run anyone down than one farmer had to run down world.
