world's record at seven furlongs. Berry, Maid went to the front early and managed to win by a head from King Cobalt, a long shot, with Red River third. Roseben does not appear to be at his best, as he was slow in breaking and was outrun all the way. FitzHerbert, a 5 to 1 shot, easily won the Woodhaven selling stakes at 4½ furlongs. He was the pacemaker all the way and won by three lengths. Trance, the 7 to 10 favorite, was second and Preceptor third. Summaries:
