BAD COLLISION RESULTS

Corinthian and Malin Head Come Together and Are Badly Damaged.

QUEBEC, Sept. 13.—Owing to the heavy smoke on the river to-day, caused by forest fires, a serious collision took place between the steamer Corinthian, Allan Line, outward bound, and the steamer Malin Head, 200 tons, inward bound.

The accident occurred at Point St.
Laurent, Island of Orleans, about 15 miles below Quebec.

The steamer Malin Head is beached near the scene of the collision, and the steamer Corinthian arrived here this evening and is moored at the Allan Wharf.

Both steamers are reported to be badly damaged.

The Corinthian left Montreal for London and Havre on Saturday morning with 75 second-class passengers.
The Malin Head was inward bound from Cardiff with general cargo.

From advices which have reached the head office of the Allan Line here the Corinthian immediately turned back to Quebec, but just her way in the docks for and finally reached her wharf at the ancient capital late this afternoon.

Mean, Kennedy & Co., the local agents of the Head Line, state tonight that the Malin Head was struck amidships and her engine room doubled. She is expected to leave for St. Laurent in order to prevent her from sinking. The Malin Head carried no passengers.

From what is known gathered here there were no casualties, altho the shock of the collision brought the passengers of the Corinthian tumbling from their berths to the deck in much excitement. The excitement was speedily controlled by Capt. Dunlop, chief officer of the Head Line, who was in command of the Malin Head.

The Corinthian passengers will be sent forward to their destination in a probability on the Hungarian, which reached port to-day. Capt. Campbell, an old servant of the Head Line, was in command of the Malin Head.

IN COUNCIL TO-DAY.

Two voluminous reports, containing 184 pages, will confront the aldermen to-day, this being the first session of the council after vacation.

Of the reports, the most important is that of the tenders for the sea wall from Indian-road 1500 feet westward.
There are four tenders, rubber masonry, solid concrete block on crib, $47,285; solid concrete on crib, $41,544, and solid concrete, $36,200. The controllers favor the third named, as recommended by the city engineer, but the aldermen may not fall in with this, especially as the city engineer favors rubber masonry.

The report of Controllers Spive and Harrison on the grading of civic salaries is about ready and will be submitted to the board of control this week.

RIVALS USE POISON.

Butcher Chaplin Suffers Loss of $200 Hope.

The "war" between the Jewish butchers in the "Ward" assumed a serious aspect Saturday night when Dr. Caplan, who started the trouble by underselling his competitors, suffered the loss of his horse valued at $200.
The animal was poisoned in the stable between 10 and 12 o'clock Saturday night, and Mr. Caplan offers a reward of $100 for the person who will arrest and convict the poisoner.

Entrance to the stable can be gained by a lane from Elizabeth-street, near Agnes, or from an adjoining stable used by Labe Neiman, reputed head of the so-called "union" of butchers.
But Mr. Neiman is as indignant about the poisoning as Mr. Caplan, and will do what he can to find the perpetrator.

Neiman denies that there is a union of the other butchers, but admits that there is an understanding whereby new customers are asked to produce a certificate from the butcher with whom they have been dealing that they are in "good standing" and not likely to leave unpaid bills.

Caplan did a rushing business Saturday.

BOOTH FAILURE INTERESTS

MANY PEOPLE IN WEST

WINNIPEG, Sept. 13.—The failure of the Booth Co. of Chicago, known as the fish trust, is of deep interest to Western Canada. Some years ago the company absorbed a number of small concerns operating in the fishing business on the lakes of Western Canada, from Port Arthur to Lake Winnipegosis. Capt. Robinson of the city and J. A. Armstrong, M.L.A. of Portage la Prairie, have been closely identified with the company in official capacities. The headquarters are at Edinburgh, where extensive freezers are maintained.

LAWYER'S BIG FEES

STAGGER MR. MILLIGAN

Farmers, Directors and Lawyers Get Pointers in Sermon to Nurses.

Rev. Dr. Milligan held the attention for an hour last night of a congregation which thronged Old St. Andrew's Church. The effort was a model of baccalaureate sermons. Addressed to the class of trained nurses who were graduated at Grace Hospital on Saturday night the sermon laid down the principles upon which professions could be legitimately entered into.

The text "One thing is needful, and Mary has chosen the better part," St. Luke, chapter 10, verse 42, was the text of the discourse at Bethany, one and a half miles from Jerusalem, with Martha and Mary, where Christ largely made his home. Martha gave her mind so much to the material side of things that she overdid it, and was officious, cooking more dishes than could be tasted. Mary, who was equally conscientious as to duty, was deeply contemplative. Otherwise she would not have been commended as Christ has no approval for mere dreamers, it is impossible to achieve the ideal life by technical efficiency.

A nurse or a minister may be scientific and technical to an extreme point and yet be deficient for usefulness by becoming human icebergs in demeanor.

Technical efficiency is, however, of vital importance. There are pupils who are suffering because the preachers filling them, turn prejudice or otherwise, do not read the books they should. If the lack of technical efficiency is caused by laziness in any profession it is a sin. But the technical should not be the whole thing.

The nurses from Grace Hospital should not be mere Marthas. The personality of the man or woman should always penetrate thru the technical. The combination gives the ideal.
A farmer in the field is not a success if his prayers be heard. But if he goes to an agricultural college and acquires technical knowledge, that together with his religious faith, makes him a success.

Dr. Hunter, the member of the board of education, writes that the selection of the school site and deprecating the charges of extravagance being made in reference thereto.

"The only question for any difference of opinion is, Can the city afford to make adequate provision for technical education? If so, it is not the board is relieved from the responsibility of putting up new buildings, and therefore justified in its judgment in order, as he said, to carry out the wishes of the remainder of the board.

commended on their opposition in the board to the Borden-street site. They would earn still more the thanks of the ratepayers who elect them if they appeared before the city council to-day to press the matter there.

money go into the building and equipment and not into the ground it is built upon.

KILLED BY FALL.

CALGARY, Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Win

Thursday by falling down hotel stairs, died to-day. The police are awaiting instructions from the widow at Paisley, Ont., regarding the funeral.

POLICE PATROL SYSTEM

SHOWS ITS USEFULNESS

Constable is Despatched to Scene of Violent Assault in Time to Round Up the Right Man.

The new police patrol system demonstrated its usefulness on Saturday night.

George Preston and Harry Greens got mixed up in a brawl in the Robert Davies racing stable on Leslie-street, and Stetson alleged to have struck Preston on the head with a hatchet, inflicting a bad cut on the ear and one on the head above the eyes. A hurry up call was sent in to headquarters for an officer, and by the aid of the new system by which a gang in the patrol box can be rung to attract the attention of the man on the beat, when instructions are telephoned, they were enabled to get a man on the job within minutes of the time the call was received. The officer hustled down and secured Stetson at the stables and took him to No. 4 station, where he is held on a charge of wounding with intention to do bodily harm. Both men are said to have been drinking during the day.

Greene was found bleeding on Queen-street, near Leslie, by a civilian, who hustled him on a passing car and took him to the general hospital on Bathurst-street, where his wounds were dressed by the house surgeon there, he being taken in charge by the police and held as material witness in the case. The cut on the ear required some stitches to close, but the one on the head, while severe, is not considered dangerous. The case will come up before Magistrate Denson this morning.

TEC. SCHOOL SITE

of being liberal with the school board, I think this site is too expensive.
The selection is not confined to that locality. Why not look around?
ALD. BREDIN: My feeling is that this is the very best selection, and I find this opinion held very largely among citizens. It is not a large enough site for a technical school.

ALD. FOSTER: We should submit the question to the people. It is a large expenditure and a matter of great public importance.

ALD. R. H. GRAHAM: It would be very desirable to have a technical school, when, in the not distant future we shall need a technical school in the east and another in the west.
The present building is not a success.
The trustees are not good business men.

ALD. STEWART: It's preposterous.
Even half the money could be remodeled for $100,000 or $150,000.
ALD. MCBRIDE is very strongly opposed, and, in fact, the motion was lost.

ALD. MCGILL: Adams, Whytehead and Chisholm are also; in fact, enquiries have failed to discover one who is in favor of the site.

Not Expense, But Extravagance.
Dr. Hunter, the member of the board

FOREST FIRE NEAR ROSSEAU

Large Area Already Sw pt Over and Damage is Serious.

ROSSEAU, Sept. 13.—A serious fire is approaching Rosseau. A large area of bush and timber land is in flames, and a number of people are homeless.
Many others are in danger. Men have been sent from many parts to fight the fire, but have met with very little success.

There is a heavy loss of property and timber.

B. Hickey, B.A., of Montreal; Rev. W.
J. Bates of Dalhousie, N.B.; Rev.
George Webb, a native of Hamilton, head of the R.F.P.U. movement in Canada and the States.

The second class is very popular with a great many travelers who would sooner have a better time abroad than pay their money for luxuries on board ship.

A Sample Incident.
"I was standing in a pouring rain on the gangway of the ship at Liverpool when I first noticed the trouble," said Rev. Dr. Hinks in telling of the experience undergone. "I saw a little man examining the passengers closely. An elderly gentleman seemed to catch his eye. I saw this gentleman dragged summarily out of the line, which was held up while the inspector whisked out a little glass and peered into his eyes. I was told that it was all about, and I asked somebody, 'By what authority?' I said, 'do you think a Canadian citizen from returning to their native land?'"

"Oh," they answered, "that man is there by the authority of the Liverpool Council of Trade."
"Well, the old gentleman got past all right. I found out afterwards that he had lived in Canada for 32 years, his home being at Tilbury. His daughter was next in the line. She was pounced upon, not quite so roughly, as the first man, but she was examined and then released."
