His companions clung to the bottom of the upturned boat and were resgued by James Poag. Cullen's father is Aggie Gallagher, Brantford, who had ben requested to leave the city, was locked up this evening. It is alleged she had been hanging around the Chiese establishments.

Mrs. Hunter, widow of Samuel Hunter, 108 North Ferguson-avenue, died to-night, at the age of 82. She had lived in Hamilton 60 years and was the oldest member of the Church of

This the board declined to do. Mr. Applegath complained that proper legal notice had not been served on the congregation, and Warden Cases told him his tion, and Warden Gage told him his nemory was much like that of a witless in a notable enquiry held in Hamfilton a short time ago. This was resented by Rev. W. J. Smith, the president of the Hamilton Conference, who went in the capacity of a mediator, but was rather unceremoniously turned down. Toronto is destined to be to Canada what Boston is to New England in reputation as the seat of culture—as much in the musical as in the intellectual realm. For the city has a conser-vatory of music and a choral organi-zation which are unrivaled in the

And now in the van of progress comes the knowledge that Toronto has emulated and successfully surpassed the metropolitan cities of the continent in establishing a music and musical merchandise store, which for equipments, appointments and stock has no peer in the Dominion and only one real rival on the western hemisphere.

This is not overlauding the new store of the R. S. Williams & Sons Co., Limited, the formal opening of which occurred yesterday and continues thru to-day. For the fact remains that the company has six floors, each measuring in lineal capacity 200 feet by 40 feet, devoted solely to the sale of sheet music and musical merchandise, from a five-cent harmonica to a $1500 grand concert piano.
