

H. Gatehouse, fish; Mr. Mock, basket of apples; Mrs. Harte two baskets of pears and apples; Mr. Gatehouse, four and three-quarter pounds fresh fish; Mrs. Brainerd, six knitted shirts for babies; Mr. Savage, vegetables; Mrs. Harte, basket of pears; Dent & Harrison, 34 loaves of bread; Robinson & Co., four dozen buns; A Friend, worn clothing; Mr. Bridgeman, meat and liver; Mrs. Trenholme, seven nursing bottles; Dent & Harrison, 60 loaves and 72 buns; Mrs. Harte, two baskets of pears; Junior C. E. of Douglas Church, 11 scrap books; Dent & Harrison, 50 loaves and 110 buns; Mrs. McLean, worn clothing; Mr. H. Russell, two baskets of apples and crab apples.

Donations for November :—'Our Home'; H. Gatehouse, eight pounds of fish—Mr. Gatehouse sends fish every Friday; Mrs. Kohl, 84 Crescent street, a parcel of warm clothing; Mrs. Ernest Gilman, 344 Metcalfe avenue, a parcel of infants' clothing; Mr. J. A. Harte, one dozen herrings; Mrs. Hogle, basket of cake, bread and butter, and grapes; Mrs. B. T. Davis, a basket of cake; American Presbyterian Church, basket of cold turkey, bread and butter, and cake; Mrs. Moss, two white cot spreads, worn; Mrs. W. W. Ogilvie, parcel of worn clothing, one cot spread, one bed spread; Mrs. J. A. Harte, two-pound jar of baking powder; G. Bridgeman, a basket of tomatoes, some liver; H. Gatehouse, fish; Francis Vallade, a bag of turnips; Mrs. G. W. Weaver, 25 Lincoln avenue, four pounds pearl tapioca; P. A. Malette & Co., a beef head and some livers; Alex. Watt, four and three-quarter dozen buns; Mr. Joyce, a box of broken cake; Mr. C. Mock, two baskets of grapes; P. A. Malette, a piece of liver; Mellins, box of toys, a pair of horses, (broken); Mr. Joyce, box of broken cake; Mrs. Davis, 45 Mackay street, a baby's delight; Mrs. Williams, a bag of potatoes; Mr. Alex. Watt, three dozen buns, and twenty-two doughnuts; Mrs. T. Hague, four window blinds, parcel of worn clothing and stair linen (worn); Mr. Weaver, iron bedstead and spring mattress; Mrs. J. A. Harte, three pairs woman's hose (worn); H. Gatehouse, fresh fish; Mrs. G. D. Ross, one cot mattress, quilt, and blanket, and three white cot spreads; Mr. Dalrymple, a barrel of apples; P. A. Malette, one pound candy and some liver; Robinson & Co., 52 buns and 25 patty cakes; Mrs. Weaver, five pounds of honey and three pairs of hand-knitted stockings for little ones; Mrs. Brown, parcel of worn clothing; Jas. McKeown, five dozen buns and three tea cakes; Mr. Savage, a parcel of worn clothing; H. Gatehouse, 8 lbs. fish; Miss E. W. Fisher and three girls, Evelyn McCutcheon, Roberta Elliott and Lulu Stephens, one dress, five petticoats for children, also three dozen oranges and some apples, Thanksgiving Day.

Donations for December :—P. A. Malette, a box of sweet potatoes; G. & J. Esplin, a load of kindling; H. Russell, forty-eight pounds of corn beef, 'Our Home'; Mr. David Morrice, piece of grey flannel, and a piece of sheeting, Mrs. Murray, three pairs of hose and one pair of gloves; Ladies' Aid of Erskine Church, seven flannellette nighties for infants, five pairs of flannel drawers and three petticoats; Mr. Francis, a glass sautern; Mrs. Ross, a parcel of magazines; H. Gatehouse, seven and three-quarters lbs. of fish, one "Boys' Own Paper"; Robinson & Co., a basket of buns and doughnuts, Mrs. Williamson, a basket of apples; Mrs. Haldane, three knitted shirts for babies; St. Paul's Dorcas Society, six flannel dresses and twelve pairs of flannel bloomers; Mrs. Eaton, plate of very nice cake; from Industrial Bazaar, $3.00 worth purchased by Mrs. W. A. Ogilvie and Miss Ogilvie; $5 worth Mrs. W. W. Ogilvie, and $6 by Lady Hickson; six flannel nighties, six flannellette nighties, six flannel barrows, three flannel dresses, one quilt and two night gowns for women; Mrs. James Hutton, a ham for Christmas; Mrs. E. G. Penny, sweet milk daily; H. Gatehouse, six