Sheriff Is Exonerated

The afternoon session of the trial of Joseph O'Brien and John Hughes yesterday afternoon was marked by the verdict acquitting the high sheriff of the partiality charge in his selection of the jury panel, which was laid by Daniel Mullin, K.C., yesterday morning. The session was resumed at 2:30 o'clock. His Honor Chief Justice McKewen, on the grounds alleged by Mr. Mullin of partiality on the part of the high sheriff and his deputy Armstrong Clifford, put the issue to trial. William Baxter and Arthur Melick were appointed triers to decide the issue.

Mr. Mullin, in his address to the triers, said that the high sheriff had showed partiality in selecting jurors as nearly all were Protestants and few Catholics were chosen. Sheriff Wilson was called. He said that he did not know how many were Catholics and how many were Protestants. He had never looked upon the selection of jurors from the standpoint of religion, he said.

Mr. Byrne objected to this line of examination and the objection was allowed. He claimed that religion, in all his experience at the bar, had never entered into the selection of jurors. The deputy sheriff's evidence threw little light on the matter. The triers, following the address of the jury, retired and brought in a verdict exonerating the sheriff.

Army Doesn't Waste Food
British Headquarters in France, June 30 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The British army in the field is consuming about 15 per cent less of foodstuffs per capita than it did eighteen months ago.

This is not due to any studied diminution of rations, but to a more careful distribution and the prevention of waste. The British soldier is still the best fed soldier in Europe, but the supply departments are gradually rescuing him from the stigma of being at the same time the most wasteful. Stocks of meat and bread are closely watched, and unused allowances must be held over and added to the store for the next meal, or the next day.

The private soldier takes more kindly to the don't-waste-food campaign than was expected, for at heart the British Tommy has an aversion to seeing good food going into the waste box—he never did it at home, and it looks like bad business to be doing it in France.

The Y. W. P. A.
At a meeting of the Y.W.P.A. executive yesterday arrangements in connection with the August 4 observance were started. Letters were read from Lieut.-Col. Corbet, of the 10th Field Ambulance, thanking the Y. W. P. A. for socks and the Loyalist Chapter, I. O. D. E. for assistance in newspaper selling. Dr. Corbet wrote that his field ambulance would go to France as a unit with the 8th Division.

Story of Crime and Chivalry

Young Lieutenant Served Prison
Term to Protect His Wife—
Wins Honor on Battlefield

London, July 8.—(Correspondence).—Announcement that King George has granted free pardon to Lieut. Cecil Aylmer Cameron recalls a story of chivalry that can hardly be matched in modern life, and it brings recognition for a distinguished patriotic service. Cameron served a prison term of three years for a crime of which he was innocent, having disdained to clear himself when he might have done so by impugning the character of his wife. His sentence stripped him of his military rank and caused his dismissal from the army. He accepted the disgrace sturdily and finished his term rather than pay the price which would avert the complete ruin of his career.

The war began soon after the expiration of his term. He had come of a soldier family, his father having won the Victoria Cross for gallantry in the great Indian mutiny, and his grandfather having been wounded at Waterloo. The young man's military friends had never believed him guilty, and when he tendered his services as a volunteer Lord Kitchener appointed him to a staff position in which his acquaintance with continental languages could be utilized. He acquitted himself so well in the western war zone that the French government rewarded him with medals for valorous service. The British pardon clears his name of taint and restores all the honors which were lost with his conviction. Before his trial he was with the Royal Field Artillery. His services for the last three years has been with the Royal Engineers.

The crime of which he was convicted was committed in 1911, when he joined his wife in a suit to recover $62,500 from an insurance company for the value of a pearl necklace of which Mrs. Cameron declared she had been robbed. It appeared at the trial that she did not possess the necklace at the time of the alleged robbery, and that she had instigated Cameron to join in the suit by lying to him as she had done to others. He refused to become a witness in his own behalf lest he might betray that he had been a victim of her deception. The court records thus showed a clear case of fraud against both husband and wife, and the penalty was imprisonment for three years for each of them.

Mrs. Cameron contracted a disease that threatened her life and she was released from prison in about four months. While believing herself to be dying she made a written confession which exonerated Cameron and acknowledged herself as the sole culprit. In the confession she said she had wished to make a similar statement at the beginning of her prison term, but her counsel had advised her against it on the ground that a petition was already in circulation for Cameron's reprieve and Cameron was as strongly against involving her in his behalf as he himself. The confession, however, was made part of one of the most remarkable petitions ever addressed to the British throne.

There were 4,000 signers, led by Cameron of Lochiel, head of the clan; five dukes, including the Duke of Norfolk, premier peer of England; Lord Lansdowne and five other marquises, Lord Roberts, Lord Grey, Lord Cromer and Lord Selborne; 126 army generals, nine judges, two archbishops, seventeen bishops, thirty-six artillery colonels, and a long list of men eminent in the professions.

Prominent Baptists

(Maritime Baptist)
Dr. D. Hutchinson is spending a well-deserved month's vacation at Wickham, N.B. During the last three Sundays of his absence the pulpit of the Main street church will be filled by Rev. M. George, of Coton Falls, N.Y. Rev. George R. Baker, D.D., of Ithaca, N.Y., is now visiting at the home of his father, C. P. Baker, of Fairville, N.B. He expects to return to Ithaca the second week in September.

Rev. H. T. DeWolfe and family are enjoying a two weeks' visit to Canada. N.S. He will be back in Wolfville again on August 7.

Before leaving Plaster Rock, Rev. C. S. Young and wife were present at three farewell gatherings. At Plaster Rock friends presented them with a beautiful china chocolate set. At Burnt Brook a purse of money was presented. Rev. M. L. Gregg of Sydney, is again at work after spending the month of June holidaying. On Sunday, June 24, he occupied the pulpit of the Hanston Baptist church, New York City. The church at Sydney is preparing to erect a new house of worship, which it is estimated will cost $40,000.

It may not be amiss for us to call attention to the fact that the new lieutenant-governor of New Brunswick is a Baptist, as far as we know the first in the history of the province. We do not believe in emphasizing denominational distinctions in public service, but we may be allowed to indulge in a little pride that one of our number has been appointed to this honorable and responsible position. We would respectfully tender our sincere and belated congratulations to Lieutenant-Governor Ganong, who has long been a strong supporter of our work at St. Stephen. The new senator, Hon. G. W. Fowler, is also of Baptist stock, his father having been for many years a faithful deacon of the church at Hammond Vale.

Many in these provinces learned to know C. R. Sever, general secretary of the Baptist Union for Western Canada, through his tour among our churches some two years ago. And to know him is to esteem him very highly, for his own as well as for his work's sake. He and his wife have the sincere sympathy of all in the sorrow that has come to them. His son, Melville, a second lieutenant in the Royal Flying Corps, was killed in action in France on June 17.

An interesting extract from a lecture by Rev. J. A. Ford, of Lisbon, N. Dak., will be found on the second page of this issue. We believe that Mr. Ford was for a brief time in the editorial chair of this paper, relieving Dr. Black, who was laid aside by illness. He has now two sons in the Canadian army. Pastor Ford is the literary editor of the North Dakota Baptist state paper.

Commissioners At Odds Over Use of Horses

A protest was made at the meeting of the common council yesterday afternoon by Commissioner Fisher to the effect that the public safety department was not permitting the use of fire horses for street watering, and he moved a resolution that the fire chief be asked to investigate and be given a free hand. Commissioner McLellan demurred that there was no obligation on the part of his department to furnish horses and that he would not give any member of his department a free hand. The matter was left over for a full meeting, Commissioner Wigmore being absent at the Conservative caucus.

Mayor Hayes reported that the Dominion fuel controller is in Washington to arrange a supply of hard coal for St. John. The proposal to establish a city wood yard was again discussed but no action taken.

A renewal lease for a lot in Lancaster was recommended for William A. Reed. The bill of W. E. Emerson for repairs to No. 5 shed, W.E., was ordered paid.

The controller was authorized to allow an overdraft of $15,309 for the ferry department, until the end of the year.

A communication was received from E. J. Terry complaining of a large pool of water in Goodrich street, which overflowed occasionally and did damage to his property. E. A. Schofield drew attention, in a letter, to the fact that if it is intended to utilize vacant lands for planting next year, now is the time to start to plow and prepare the land. A complaint was received from the Fernhill Cemetery Company that one of the avenues in the cemetery had been dug and left open by the water and sewerage department. Notice was received from the office of the board of school trustees that the term of Commissioner J. V. Russell as trustee expired. A request was received from Miss E. St. John Wileman for a grant of $80 that she may be able to go to Washington and interview the president in her scheme for the establishment of a national labor bureau system. The council accepted the invitation from Rev. Canon Armstrong to attend a memorial service to be held in Trinity church on war anniversary day, Aug. 4.

REPRISALS JUSTIFIED BY MILITARY LAW IN EXTREME CASES
The Manual of Military Law says regarding reprisals: "Reprisals between belligerents are retaliation for illegitimate acts of warfare, for the purpose of making the enemy comply in future with the recognized laws of war. They are not a means of punishment, or of arbitrary vengeance, but of coercion."

Reprisals are an extreme measure, because in most cases they inflict suffering upon innocent individuals. In this, however, their coercive force exists, and they are indispensable as a last resource.

Your "Get-Away Power" in Summer is a matter of fuel-food for the human engine. Food that is hard to digest and low in nutritive value does not supply energy for the day's work. It uses up needed power by overtaxing the digestive organs. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is all food. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat and is prepared in a digestible form. Changing from meat and potatoes to Shredded Wheat brings a mental buoyancy and physical alertness that makes one eager for the day's task. Eat it for any meal with sliced bananas, berries, or other fruits.

Eczema on Hands

ECZEMA is usually aggravated by the application of water, and more particularly in the fall and winter, when the water is cold, many suffer keenly from itching, stinging eczema on the hands. Dr. Chase's Ointment has proven itself the most effective treatment obtainable for eczema, and on this account has enormous sales. It affords relief from the itching and burning almost as soon as applied, and with persistent use heals and cures.

Mrs. W. G. Dowden, Greenspond, Bonaville Bay, Nfld., writes:—"I suffered with eczema on my hands, and for eighteen months was so bad that I could not use a needle to sew or do anything. I could scarcely dress myself. Though I had lots of salves from doctors, I could never get much benefit from them. Then I sent for a sample of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and found it very different in action. It was not long before my hands began to heal, and four 60c boxes made them well. I cannot praise Dr. Chase's Ointment too highly, and frequently give some to others to get them using it, for I know that it will cure."
