SALVAGE LIQUOR, THEN IT'S SEIZED

Sarnia, Ont., Feb. 14.—Following their salvaging of a rowboat load of whiskey from the ice floes in the St. Clair river yesterday, only to have it confiscated by Constable Walton, of Courtwright, four youths have secured the services of the legal firm of Hanson and McNally to open a battle in the courts for the return of the liquor that they risked their lives to get.

CANADIANS TO SKATE IN NORWAY

Announcement by President of International Union.

Formation of New Circuit—Staff to Defend Title Today at Saranac Lake—Late News of Sport World.

Lake Placid, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Canada and the U. S. will be represented at skating events to be held in Norway next winter, according to plans of T. T. Fitzgerald of Chicago, president of the International Skating Union of America. The skating official, who has been here for the diamond trophy championship, intends to have the amateurs picked by the performances in a series of events on a new international circuit.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Arthur Staff of Chicago, professional skating champion, here to defend his title in a three-day meet beginning today, was faced by a large field of fast and experienced skaters. The events today are the semi-finals in the 200 yards, half-mile and two-mile events.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—At the end of the thirty-fourth hour in the sixty-five mile race here, Walter Brien, of Brooklyn, was leading. The riders had covered 372 miles and one lap. Stein is paired with Frank Cavanaugh, of Newark.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 14.—Vancouver Towers defeated the Victoria Senators 2 to 1 last night in the first of two games to decide the provincial amateur championship and the right to travel east to contest the Allen Cup.

Toronto, Feb. 14.—Next autumn gridiron fans will have an opportunity of seeing an all star English team in action here, playing both football and rugby. It is the intention to collect a team of players well known in English college "rugger" circles and play exhibitions in Canada wherever they can be had. The tourists will probably engage in some contests in the maritime provinces.

Fredericton, Feb. 14.—Fredericton and the closing game of the western section of the N. B. and P. E. I. Amateur Hockey League. If St. John wins tonight there will be a three-cornered tie between St. John, Marysville and Fredericton for second place.

New York, Feb. 14.—Club owners of the National League met here today to ratify the 1922 schedule of 143 games, and to witness a three-cornered argument between the Phillies, the Brooklyn and St. Louis Nationals over William F. Baker's statement that Branch Rickey and W. Robinson had been tampering with his players.

EARLY ARREST IS EXPECTED

Delorme Inquest Resumed Today—Chain of Evidence Said to be Practically Complete.

Montreal, Feb. 14.—The adjourned inquest into the killing of Raoul Delorme, Ottawa student, will be resumed before Coroner McMahon this afternoon. Sensational developments are anticipated. It is being rumored that an arrest will feature the termination of today's proceedings.

Detectives are unanimous that their chain of evidence is now practically complete, and that they are prepared to lay before Coroner McMahon certain facts which will make further adjournments of the inquest unnecessary.

CHARLOTTETOWN FIRE
Charlottetown, P. E. I., Feb. 14.—The job printing plant of Irwin & Co. valued at $22,000, was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Explosion in a water tank is thought to have caused the blaze.

TOO MANY COOTIES

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram" said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I helped a little maid prepare some valentines last evening. They were very pretty—not at all like the kind my own childhood knew. Do you remember the caricatures of the show cases of the country store about this time of year you were a boy?"

INDIAN SITUATION MORE FAVORABLE

London, Feb. 14.—(Canadian Press).—A despatch to the London Times from Agra, dated Monday, says the reception of the Prince of Wales there was an agreeable surprise. Although in the city the "Hartal" was almost complete and everything closed down, in the outlying districts the bazaars and shops were open. A crowd of 3,000 persons was about the station when the prince arrived, and more thousands elsewhere. Sometimes the crowds were demonstrative. This unexpected friendly atmosphere must not, the despatch adds, be taken as indicating that the condition of the people of the whole area of the united provinces is other than very serious, although it is true that the general trend of incidents during the past fortnight have been distinctly favorable.
