NEW DETECTIVE SERIAL WILL AROUSE INTEREST

Story Readers Will Receive With Satisfaction Announcement That Craig Kennedy Stories are to be Seen on the Screen

Much interest centres in Imperial Theatre's announcement that Craig Kennedy, the scientific detective, the most popular crime detector of the world's fiction, is to appear on the screen in a new serial, "The Carter Case," starting this Friday. Many readers of the Craig Kennedy stories have received with joy the news he is to be visualized in his marvelous methods of running down criminals.

Arthur B. Reeve's name, as a writer of detective stories, is sufficient to arouse interest in the serial and the fact that John W. Grey is co-author is another reason why everyone is saying that "The Carter Case" is about the best episode picture ever produced.

Herbert Rawlinson is seen in the title role and is said to be particularly fitted to portray the physical and mental qualities of the great detective. He has as his co-star, Margaret Marsh, who played with Houdini in "The Master Mystery," and is now appearing as the star in the Goldwyn production, "The Eternal Magdalen." Other popular stage and screen favorites make up a capable cast. Oliver Films, Inc., producers of the serial, have given "The Carter Case" an elaborate production that is more in the way of a feature picture than any other serial yet placed on the market. Fifteen episodes make up the serial, each of which is replete with excitement and thrills and displays Kennedy at his best and in some of the most astounding feats of detection and escapes from serious predicaments he has ever shown in the many Arthur B. Reeve stories.

MRS. C. H. BAXTER VERY BADLY HURT

Her Arm Amputated as Result of Injuries Sustained Near Evandale

As the result of a serious accident at Evandale last evening Mrs. C. H. Baxter is in a critical condition in the hotel there. It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Baxter, a returned soldier named Foster, Mrs. Irvine Young and her husband, who is the resident engineer at Hampstead, were riding on a motor trolley along the Valley Railway and while approaching Evandale saw an engine with flat cars rapidly approaching. Fearing a head-on collision the men threw the women off the trolley. Mrs. Irvine escaped with a few scratches and a shaking up, but Mrs. Baxter's clothing caught and she was dragged under one of the wheels of the trolley and one of her arms was run over and badly mangled. She also sustained severe injuries to her head. Doctors Jenkins and Jack were summoned. It was found that her arm was so badly injured that amputation was necessary. Her condition today is said to be serious.

NINE CASES AT THE KINNEL COURT MARTIAL

Liverpool, May 14.—(Reuters)—At the Kinmel Park Camp not court martial yesterday Pte. George Harber of the Canadian cavalry pleaded not guilty. It was said that after "tin town" had been wrecked by the rioters on March 4 the accused was found hiding in a store and several new articles in his possession.

In defence, Major Weyman submitted the prosecution had not proved the charge of mutiny. "Tin town" was outside the camp and was composed of stores which were the property of civilians.

The court called for evidence of character and the accused was removed under escort.

Private William Taylor of the Canadian artillery pleaded guilty to taking part in a mutiny. The evidence was that he was found in another part of a wrecked store picking things off the floor. He was removed under escort.

WHAT THE WAR COST THE ALLIES IN SHIPS

London, May 14.—(Reuters)—The ministry of shipping announced the number and tonnage of Allied merchantmen lost through enemy action as follows:

Britain—2,197, tonnage 7,538,000.
France—288, tonnage 697,000.
Italy—230, tonnage 748,000.
Japan—279, tonnage 120,000.
United States—Eighty, tonnage 341,000.

In addition to these twenty British vessels, tonnage 95,000, were lost in admiralty service.

Industrials, especially equipments and steels, gathered fresh strength on very heavy buying induced by reports that large domestic and foreign orders were about to be awarded. Rails were influenced by advices from western and southwestern agricultural centres confirming last week's official crop forecast.

Baldwin Locomotive, Crucible Steel, Lackawanna, Gulf States Steels, Republic Iron, Pressed Steel and Airbrake were two to four points higher by midday. Shipments and rails, notably Grangers, were extensively accumulated at further gains. Leather shares rose three to four points on trade conditions as many paper industrials were at highest prices of the year.
