BIG VAUDEVILLE TONIGHT AT GEM

Five Acts, Pathe News, Scenic and Comedy Pictures in Great Show

Tonight at the Gem come vaudeville and pictures—the big programme of the week. The acts are Frober and Hartwell, man and girl comedy and music; Galvin, Levee and Galvin in "The Messenger," a jolly specialty, two girls and a man, and The Nippon, a big unit act with singing, piano and juggling variety. There are three pictures—Pathe News with rich war hits, scenic views in Texas and a jolly comedy called "Bliss." Tonight at 7.15 and 8.45. You'll surely enjoy it.

MOST ENTERTAINING IS OPERA HOUSE BILL

With one of the most entertaining vaudeville programmes of the season, the Opera House this week is the mecca for all pilgrims looking for a good show—a right kind of an entertainment, just packed full of good laughs, lots of snap and dash, plenty of good dancing, music, acrobatic stunts, all so good that many people stay over for the second show. The bill is a real picture, "Vengeance and the Woman," a drama of the great west, full of pep and thrill. Two performances in evening, at 7.15 and 9—afternoon at 2.30. Popular prices.

WHAT YOU WILL SEE IN THE PATHE LIE AT THE GAIETY

A battle scene and machine gun bombardment on the border. Crane Willard and Harriett Ingram in a spectacular sword duel. Mae Gaston, celebrated emotionalist, in the role of Wilbur's fiancée. A picturization of the operation of conscience—the conscience of a plotting woman.

HOW MANY BONES HAVE YOU IN YOUR FEET?

Most likely you do not know, few people do, and it is usually a surprise to learn that there are so many, and that the foot is about the most complicated and delicately constructed part of the body.

In order that you may get full information as to the many foot troubles which the people of today are suffering, there is to be a free lecture given to the public on Thursday evening in the Germain Street Institute, corner of Germain and Queen streets, at 8 p. m.

Waterbury & Rising have here during this week a foot specialist who has very high qualifications in his profession, being the right hand man of Dr. Scholl, the world's greatest authority on foot troubles, and who, it is claimed, has relieved more people from suffering than any other man alive.

This lecture is entirely free of charge, and will be illustrated by over 100 slides of a most interesting nature, and no doubt it will be a great privilege for the people of this city to get such direct information of just how to take care of their feet and avoid the intense suffering which many have gone through in the past.

The three things which you do not want to forget are, the place, this morning, Street Institute; the time, Thursday night at 8 p. m.; the fact that admission is entirely free to the public.

Three soldiers of the military police were in court today that they had been instructed by their superior officers to make a case against Belanger and give evidence in proof of his offence. Judge Choquet, however, said that the accused was entitled to the benefit of the doubt and acquitted him.

IN WALL STREET.

New York, June 26.—Specialties were the prominent feature at the firm opening of today's stock market, the automobile group taking precedence over more seasoned stocks. General Motors gained 2 3/4 and Buick 1 3/4. Other equipments made fractional gains with steel and copper. Reading was extremely active. Open at 114 1/2, 115 1/2, 116 1/2, 117 1/2, 118 1/2, 119 1/2, 120 1/2, 121 1/2, 122 1/2, 123 1/2, 124 1/2, 125 1/2, 126 1/2, 127 1/2, 128 1/2, 129 1/2, 130 1/2, 131 1/2, 132 1/2, 133 1/2, 134 1/2, 135 1/2, 136 1/2, 137 1/2, 138 1/2, 139 1/2, 140 1/2, 141 1/2, 142 1/2, 143 1/2, 144 1/2, 145 1/2, 146 1/2, 147 1/2, 148 1/2, 149 1/2, 150 1/2, 151 1/2, 152 1/2, 153 1/2, 154 1/2, 155 1/2, 156 1/2, 157 1/2, 158 1/2, 159 1/2, 160 1/2, 161 1/2, 162 1/2, 163 1/2, 164 1/2, 165 1/2, 166 1/2, 167 1/2, 168 1/2, 169 1/2, 170 1/2, 171 1/2, 172 1/2, 173 1/2, 174 1/2, 175 1/2, 176 1/2, 177 1/2, 178 1/2, 179 1/2, 180 1/2, 181 1/2, 182 1/2, 183 1/2, 184 1/2, 185 1/2, 186 1/2, 187 1/2, 188 1/2, 189 1/2, 190 1/2, 191 1/2, 192 1/2, 193 1/2, 194 1/2, 195 1/2, 196 1/2, 197 1/2, 198 1/2, 199 1/2, 200 1/2.

NOON REPORT.

The trend of the market after the first half hour indicated a further divergence of professional sentiment and extension of trading for the short accounts. Reversals of one to three points were made by speculative issues such as motors, tobaccos and shippings. Representative stocks also yielded to pressure, United States Steel being freely offered on its early fractional rise. Prices improved irregularly in the second hour, with fresh selling at noon.

CORN AND OATS.

Chicago, June 26.—"Calendar buying" led to a decided upturn today in the price of corn. It has been a tradition that this was the date to purchase corn in anticipation of wet weather and of consequent scares in regard to crop damage. Day traders, however, were largely multiplied and to such an extent that for the time being little notice was taken of other factors. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 4-cent higher by July at $1.44-5 to $1.44-7 1/2, followed by a sharp general advance.

Lack of offerings allowed oats to rise with prices softening unchanged to 1-8 higher at $1.8-8 to $1.8-2. August, the market set a material gain. Provisions recited strength in the hog market. Ribs especially went up grade.

HOME RULE FIRST, SAYS JOHN DILLON

Mr. Asquith.

London, June 26.—In appealing to the government to refer the Irish question to the dominion conference, former Prime Minister Asquith in the House of Commons said that the relation between the two policies of home rule and conscription was acceptable to all parties in Ireland and to the people of Great Britain. I do not believe the imperial war cabinet could perform a task more vital to the interests of the empire or more valuable to the prosecution of the war than to pass the way for a settlement in Ireland.

Sir Edward Carson.

Sir Edward Carson asked the government to give a frank explanation of their policy of offering recruits land. He argued that such a policy could be only satisfactory and just if applied to the whole kingdom and dominions. When Irishmen refused to assist England because they could not get home rule, he would remind them it was not a question of assisting England, but of assisting civilization to drive back barbarism. He asked Irishmen to turn their eyes to the west to see what Irishmen in America were doing.

Reviewing the various negotiations in which he had participated for the settlement of the Irish problem, Sir Edward contended that they would show to the dominions and America that Ulster had not been unreasonable in trying to find a settlement. He would say to his fellow Irishmen whether from the north, south or west: "For heaven's sake, vindicate your country and your honor and take your share in the war for freedom."

Sir James H. Dalziel asked how long the government was going to allow the scandal of young men going to Ireland to escape military service. Chief Secretary Shortt, in reply, agreed that the scandal had existed for a considerable time, but after consultation with the law officers it had been decided to issue immediately a proclamation calling these men for service. They would be taken under escort and handed over to the military authorities in England.

Address to President Wilson.

Dublin, June 26.—(By the Associated Press).—At a private meeting of the Irish anti-conscription conference held in the Lord Mayor of Dublin announced that he had called at the American embassy in London and presented to Ambassador Page the address of the conference to President Wilson. He also gave the ambassador a letter stating the circumstances under which he was prevented from presenting the address personally to the president.

The lord mayor said he had under-
