Attractions at nickel motion picture theatres.

OPENING THE PLAYGROUNDS

The supervised playgrounds in the Centennial and Aberdeen school grounds will be opened on Monday. The supervisors at the Centennial grounds will be Miss James Maxwell and the assistant Miss Bertha Turner. At the Aberdeen grounds Miss Melick will be superior and Miss Sue Turner assistant.

It is worth while for St. John people to note that in Detroit this year there are sixteen supervised playgrounds, with bathing, wading pools, swimming teachers, etc. All the teachers are graduates of the University of Michigan specially trained in playground work.

Contributions to the playground fund will be gladly received by Dr. Margaret Parks, treasurer of the playgrounds committee of the Women's Council.

In the police court this morning, the case of William Stafford, charged with obstructing the sidewalk in Charlotte and North Market street, was taken up. The evidence of Walker O'Brien, William R. Nelson and John D. Riley was taken, after which Judge Ritchie allowed Stafford to go. Charles Cain, arrested on charge of being drunk and insulting Mrs. Till, was also before the court, and after giving the prisoner a severe lecture, Judge Ritchie fined him $5 or thirty days in jail on the charge of drunkenness and $20 or two months in jail for insulting Mrs. Till.

One other prisoner, Daniel O'Leary, was fined $8 or thirty days in jail for intoxication.

RAN AWAY FROM HOME.

Alexander Coombe, charged with stealing two suits of clothes from the Halifax House in Mill street, was before Judge Ritchie this morning. Max Williams, a Jewish lad, told of buying two suits from the prisoner, who gave him his name as Jack Fraser, of Stellarton, N.S. Coombe was further reprimanded. Coombe told the court that his home was in New Glasgow, and that he ran away about two months ago.

PRESENTATION.
Henry W. Wilson, of Indian town, who for some time has been in the office of W. H. Hayward Co., in Prince Street, has accepted a position in the office of the Canadian Rubber Co., in King street. He is very popular with his employers and fellow employees. His associates in the retail department and the office presented to him a handsome gold watch ring. The presentation was made by Miss Nellie Gorman of the retail staff.

EARLY CLOSING CASES

The early closing cases were to have come up in the police court this morning, but were adjourned for one week. Daniel Mullin, K. C. and Recorder Baxter were in court ready to proceed but Mr. Honor said that the mayor and aldermen would likely come to a decision in regard to the matter next week.
