

Q. Now, I am going to ask you to look at the document that you have just read, and I am going to ask you to tell me if you believe that the document is authentic and reliable. A. Yes, I believe it is authentic and reliable. Q. Now, I am going to ask you to tell me if you believe that the document is authentic and reliable. A. Yes, I believe it is authentic and reliable. Q. Now, I am going to ask you to tell me if you believe that the document is authentic and reliable. A. Yes, I believe it is authentic and reliable.

PROSECUTOR: And it does not state when the seals were removed. PRESIDENT: Yes, I make an answer to that. It is like to give some argument in connection with the authenticity of the document and for the purpose of the record ask the witness why the document has not been initialed. Would that be proper?

PRESIDENT: Yes, that is alright.

PROSECUTOR TO WITNESS: Do you know why the document produced to the Court has not been initialed, Captain Smith?

A. The discrepancies in the document were noted previous to its presentation to the Court, but we were unable to have them corrected because I think Toome has since left the Unit on leave, and has not yet returned.

Q. It has been stated the document is signed in lead pencil. What sort of pencil, do you know. Is it ordinary pencil or indelible?

A. I am not sure I believe it is indelible.

Q. Will you look at the document.

A. I believe that to be indelible pencil.

Q. If I may look up Appendix to Executive Order 9841, Paragraph C (6) 11: "The Executive Provisions of Order in Paragraph F.C. 56-401 of 5th June 41, reads as follows: A certificate purporting to be signed by an officer or soldier in charge of an escort detailed to effect the arrest or return to the Corps
