BAY ROBERTS, FRIDAY, NOV. 17, 1916.

A Great Success

The Patriotic Hot Supper given by the W. P. A. in the Public Building on Wednesday night proved a success far in excess of the hopes of even the most energetic and enthusiastic workers of the Association.

From 7.15, the hour at which the entertainment was formally opened by the Rev. S. Bennett in a few well chosen remarks, the many attendants at the seven large tables were kept constantly on the alert until 10.30 catering to the needs of the large number of guests that attended the supper from Bay Roberts and many of the neighboring towns and villages.

The catering was excellent, the provisions ample, and the lady attendants were untiring in their efforts to please their patrons. The assemblage, which was composed of all classes and ages, appeared to be in perfect harmony with the great and good cause they were aiding, and jovial good fellowship reigned supreme.

The fancy work, candy and ice cream tables were also well patronized. A porch chair, made and donated by Max Dave, was sold by auction during the evening and realized about $10. A handsome mat, made and donated by Misses Ethel Mercer, Pearl Mercer, Dorothy Mercer, Nellie R. Mercer, Nellie Mercer and Florrie Baggs, realized $7 in a guessing contest.

During the evening a solo was rendered by Miss Beulah Bowering, and two little tots, Christie Dave and Ellen Snow gave recitations which were much enjoyed.

Last night, as a fitting wind up to a most successful undertaking, soup, tea and cake was served to a fairly good attendance composed chiefly of younger people, and a pleasant time was spent. The proceeds from both nights will total about $190, and the ladies are to be congratulated on these results that has crowned their efforts.

Memorial Service

The Memorial Service for the late Private Robert Butler, held in Central Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon last, was attended by a large congregation including the brethren of Victoria Lodge, No. 3, L. O. A., of which the deceased soldier was a member.

Missionary Meeting

The annual missionary meeting will (D. V.) be held in St. Matthew's Church on Monday night at half past 7 o'clock. The speakers will be Rev. W. R. J. Higgitt, Rector of Harbor Grace, and Rev. F. Severn, Incumbent of Salmon Cove. All are welcome.

Not Disposed to Take Action

"There is so much apathy in our outport people, that one might conclude that they do not feel the need of any improvement. There is any amount of talking and grumbling, but no disposition to take any action. Public spirit is dead."

Shearstown Notes

On Sunday morning, Nov. 12th, a Memorial Service for the late Pearl Turtle was held in the Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Bennett conducted the service, his text being John 13. 7: "What I do, thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter." The attendance was the largest seen for some time.

Mrs. J. J. Johnston, who had been spending a short while with her mother at Shearstown, left by Tuesday morning's express for her home at Brantford, Ont. Her husband Sergt. J. J. Johnston, is serving with the 125th Brantford Battalion.

Misses Martha and Mary Badcock, who had spent a two months' vacation with their mother, left by Tuesday morning's express for Hamilton, Ont., taking with them their mother, Mrs. Cecily Badcock, and their sister, Emma Badcock. Mrs. Sarah Earle also left for North Sydney, where she intends spending the winter with her son, Mr. Wm. Earle.

Mr. Wm. Robert Earle and Mr. Geo. Hy. Badcock, of Shearstown, who were working in the U.S. during the summer months, returned to their respective homes recently.

The ladies of the Meth. congregation, Shearstown, held their Annual Sale of Work and Tea on Monday and Tuesday nights. The affair was a great success. Hot supper was served the first night, which proved very appetizing, and the second night soup was served. All present both nights were bountifully supplied. One of the chief features of the sale was a turkey. It was given by Mr. James Sparks and brought the handsome sum of $6.20. Really a monster turkey. Some of our ladies worked zealously, while others sat still and watched. The proceeds of the sale were $88.64, but it is hoped, by the help of those that have not already helped, to reach a three figure sum. Nov. 15.

Death of Mrs. G. Hedderson

There passed away suddenly at her home on Monday morning, Nov. 13th, Mrs. George Hedderson, at the age of 58 years. Mrs. Hedderson's death came as a surprise to her many friends. Sunday night she was visiting a neighbour's house and did not complain of feeling sick. About 4 o'clock the next morning Mrs. Hedderson called her husband and said that she was dying, and expired at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Hedderson leaves to mourn their loss a husband, four sisters, Mrs. Jonathan Snow, Mrs. Henry Snow, Bay Roberts; Mrs. John Kelly, Coley's Point; Mrs. James Baggs, Beachy Cove, one brother, Mr. William Brown, Bay Roberts, a step mother, Mrs. Isaac Saunders and a large circle of friends.

She will be missed by many others, as she was an earnest worker in the C. of E. Association and a member of the W. P. A. of Shearstown. Interment took place on Wednesday, Nov. 15th, at 1.30 p.m., in the Church of England Cemetery, Rev. A. B. S. Stirling officiating. He took for his text the Ecclesiastes 9 and part of the 5th verse, "The living know that they must die."

It is also expected that a list of all things collected for the supper will be handed in by the various collectors at the meeting on Wednesday night next, if not before.

EVERYBODY NEEDS PURE, RICH BLOOD

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, a deranged state of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia.

Pure blood is required by every organ of the body for the proper performance of its functions. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so successful in the treatment of so many diseases and ailments. Its acts directly on the blood, ridding it of scum and other humors. It is a peculiar combination of blood-purifying, nerve-toning, strength-giving substances. Get it today.

Foodstuffs and Freights

Strong protests are being uttered by one newspaper in St. John's—The Mail and Advocate—against excessive charges on foodstuffs and the increase in freight rates to the outports by the Reid Newfoundland Co. But as far as we know the protests have been unheeded.

The government has been asked to interest themselves in the matter. The people are also urged to take action. What will be the result? We do know that some thing very desperate has got to happen before the people are moved to action. This may be, to a large extent, because the people consider they have elected representatives who should be looking after their interests. But they find that these same representatives are usually very little concerned about them. How can they be concerned when they are out of touch with the people's interests?

The matter of looking after the interests of the public should not be left entirely to the press. The representatives of the people should be the first to take action and see that the interests of their constituents are safeguarded.

For this purpose were they elected. To this end did they obtain a majority vote of the electorate. Not merely to assist in making laws for the general well-being of the commonwealth were they selected, but to be interested and active in seeing that justice is done to those whom they are especially elected to see to.

A great war is raging. Our Empire is engaged in the vast struggle. Newfoundlanders are doing their 'bit'. We do not expect to escape a certain amount of suffering and inconvenience. But we do expect that those in power will see to it that in every possible way that suffering and inconvenience will be reduced to a minimum, and that no undue advantage of the public will be taken by any single individual.

The outport people are expecting their representatives in the government to do their duty without fear or favor. Will they be disappointed? Time will tell.

An Appeal

The Recruiting Committee of the Patriotic Association deem it necessary that the King's subjects in Newfoundland should be made acquainted with the present condition of affairs and that, by a full knowledge of the needs of Empire, the patriotism of the Colony may be stimulated.

From the beginning of the war now in progress, voluntary enlistment has been the basis upon which has been built up the Naval and Military contingents from Newfoundland. We have sent 1500 men for the Navy and 3000 for the Army. Not a few have been decorated for bravery, and all have sustained the highest traditions of the Empire and won for themselves and for the Colony undying fame.

In the North Sea, on the Atlantic, on trade routes and wherever duty has demanded, our Naval Volunteers have acquitted themselves with distinction.

Wherever the Regiment has been called on to discharge its duty it has won unstinted praise.

But more men are needed to finish the work, to overwhelm the enemy, and secure the blessings of a lasting peace. We therefore appeal to the men of Newfoundland to offer themselves for service and to furnish His Majesty the King with a portion of that help which the Mother Country deems necessary to accomplish this result.

The obligation rests upon us to furnish reserves to fill the ranks, and our comparative immunity from the consequences of a state of war must not be allowed to blind us to the stern need of more men, not alone that victory may be secured but that Newfoundland's place in the Colonial Empire of Great Britain may be assured. It must not be said of us that the blood shed and the treasure expended has been in vain; but if the response which is anticipated be fully realized it will be blazoned to the remotest dependency of the Crown that the boast of this Colony has been well justified—most ancient and most loyal.
