CUP OFFERED FOR GREAT DORY RACE

Member of Shelburne Yacht Club Gives Trophy for International Event

(Boston Herald.)
The international dory race is now assured, and from now until the trial races are settled the members of the Massachusetts Dory Racing Association will be busy to get their boats in the best of shape to try for the honor of representing Massachusetts and this country against the best boats in Nova Scotia. Already two boats are building to contest in the trial races, and no doubt many more will be built.
The following letter received yesterday, is self-explanatory, and assures a race between the Massachusetts and Nova Scotian dories:

SHELBURNE YACHT CLUB,
Shelburne, Nova Scotia, Jan. 31, 1906.
To the Massachusetts Dory Racing Association—Gentlemen: We beg to advise you that W. A. Wagner, a member of this club, has presented to us a sterling silver cup, to be given as a trophy for an international dory race in each year, under rules of this club, practically the same as yours, of which copy will follow in a few days.
This cup was originally presented to us by Frank Lovitt, as a trophy for racing dory championships, and became the property of Mr. Wagner through his having won it two consecutive years with the same dory. To preserve its history (the first trophy given in this country for dory racing championship) Mr. Wagner presents it with the request that it shall be known as the Lovitt-Wagner cup.

We hereby invite your association, and the clubs of which it is formed, to visit us during the week commencing July 15, or at such other time as may best suit your convenience if you will give us early notice of any desired change of date.

Yours faithfully,
ROBERT J. HERVEY,
Commander.

Those having in charge the interests of the Massachusetts Dory Racing Association will immediately take action, and the date will no doubt be accepted, as it is much in line with the suggestions already sent to the Shelburne Yacht Club by the Massachusetts Association.

BRIEF DESPATCHES.

BRUSSELS, Feb. 6.—One of the royal carriages in which King Leopold was riding today had a collision with an electric street car. His Majesty was thrown violently to the floor of his vehicle. He sustained no injury, but the shock was severe. He was subsequently conducted to his palace. This accident has resulted in King Leopold postponing his departure for the South of France.

HAMILTON, Ohio, Feb. 6.—"Aunt" Jane Lewis, whose age is authentically estimated to have been 115 years, died here today. She was born in Exeter, N. H., and lived for many years with the family of General Zachary Taylor.

GORDON, G. A., Feb. 6.—Peter Arline, a negro, was shot and killed here today by a posse which was formed to arrest him. Arline was said to be drinking and was creating disorder.
He resisted arrest and when a posse was formed fired upon it. The posse returned the fire, killing him.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Feb. 6.—"Kid" Sayers, of Milwaukee, had the best of a six round bout with a local fighter aid, of Bridgeport, in the Colorado Athletic Club tonight. It was a fast bout, which was stopped in the sixth round by a referee, saving Fitzgerald from a knockout.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—President Roosevelt hopes to visit Alaska on a hunting trip after his presidential term expires. He expressed this desire today to Robert W. Wiley who has spent 17 years in that country and has traveled in remote sections where big game is still abundant.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Wm. Howard Russell, the veteran war correspondent who described the Battle of Bull Run for the London Times during the Civil War in the United States, is critically ill.

BUCHAREST, Roumania, Feb. 7.— Fifteen wood-cutters were overwhelmed by a snow avalanche yesterday, in the Muscal district. A man who witnessed the accident gave the alarm but all the men were dead when they were dig out of the snow.

MADRID, Feb. 7.—The intensely cold weather which has prevailed in Spain yesterday destroyed the winter crops in several provinces.

NICE, France, Feb. 7.—Troops and gendarmes today participated in the expulsion of the students at a local assembly. The superior of the institution raised a protest against the action.
There was much shouting at the soldiers.

LAST EVENING'S CONCERT.

A very large audience filled the Opera House last evening, at the concert given by the pupils of the Boston School of Music, and from the time the curtain rose for the first selection until God Save the King, every number met with great appreciation. The mandolin and guitar selections given by the pupils themselves were greatly enjoyed although it was unfortunate that the curtain was so slow in dropping, at the close of these numbers, and thus put the performers to some little inconvenience. Mr. E. A. Ryson, in his mandolin solos, received hearty applause, and it is worth noting that some of the mandolin selections were of Mr. Ryson's own composition and mark him as a musician of no mean order. Miss Lillian Isaacs, in her readings, delighted the audience and was re-called again and again. In her first selection, "The Touch of a Child," a study of absorbing interest, Miss Isaacs held the audience so completely that the only sounds audible were Miss Isaacs' voice and the ticking of a clock. It is to be regretted that in Miss Isaacs' second number, a selection from "The Lady of Lyons," delivered with real dramatic power, the reader was more than once interrupted with whistling, etc., from the audience. The vocal solos of Mrs. Bridges and Miss Payne were also highly appreciated, and Mrs. Bridges especially received hearty applause. Altogether the large audience present had every reason to go away feeling well repaid.

FIRST ARRIVAL —OF— NEW SPRING MUSLINS!

The coming season promises to be one of the most important wash goods eras we have ever had. Muslins are going to be used as they have never been before, and naturally there will be a big demand for them. We observed long ago that Dame Fashion was going to give Muslins her stamp of approval, and made our selections accordingly, at the time the assortment in the hands of the manufacturers was at its best. As a result our customers will get the benefit of the new prices as well as of the superior assortment of styles. Wish we could cut off samples and pin them on today's issue of this paper. Result—every woman reader would be in the store tomorrow.

TWENTY PERSONS HURT IN STREET CAR SMASH

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 6.—Twenty persons were injured, five seriously, tonight, when an electric car on the Pittsburgh R. R. Co.'s line between East Pittsburgh and Trafford City, jumped the track and plunged over a fifteen foot embankment at Wall Bridge near Wilmerding, a suburb of this city. The seriously injured are Grace Abbott, Sadie Evans, Elbert Dodd and Joseph Aldinger, all of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Frank Meyer, of Trafford City. The car was bound for Trafford City with a load of employees from East Pittsburgh. Without warning it plunged down the embankment, where it struck a ditch and stood on end, throwing the passengers in a heap at the front end. Most of the injuries were due to the victims' struggles to escape from the car.

MINK FURS

Despite the fact that we have had a great run on MINK FURS this season our stock still affords a good selection.

THE ENGINEER'S CORPSE WAS AT THE THROTTLE

Fast Passenger Train Running in Charge of a Dead Man.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—The congressional limited train on the Penna.
R. R., which leaves Washington for New York at 4 o'clock, ran through this city tonight at terrific speed, with the engineer, Joseph Toms, dead at the throttle. The train, which was made up of seven buffet, dining and parlor cars, makes two stops in this city, one at West Philadelphia and the other at North Philadelphia. Shortly after the train left West Philadelphia the fireman, Harry Michner, noticed the speed of the train was unusually fast. The train swayed as it rounded the curves, but the engineer gave no signals. Michner called to Toms, but received no answer, and when the train rushed through Fairmont Park and neared North Philadelphia, the fireman climbed over the big boiler into the engineer's cab to find Toms dead with his hand on the throttle. His head was hanging out of the cab window and had been crushed by striking some obstacle along the road.
Michner supported the dead engineer on his arm and brought the train to a stop at North Philadelphia, where a new engineer was secured and the train proceeded to New York. The passengers were not told of the accident until the train reached New York. Toms, the dead engineer, was 43 years of age, and lived in Newark.

BELL BOY WAS A GIRL.

"Perry Martin," of New York, Was Employed in a Texas Hotel When Discovered.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Feb. 6.—A strange case of dual personality came to light here yesterday. On December 17 of last year a young man, apparently about twenty-five years old, called on the secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association and required to be assisted in his search for employment. He said he came originally from New York, but had become ill in New Orleans and was only recently discharged from a hospital there. He gave his name as Perry Martin. Employment was obtained at the Oaks Hotel as bellboy.
Last Friday the manager saw the bellboy without his coat and noted that the contour was not masculine. Charged with masquerading in false attire, the young woman burst into tears and confessed her sex. She declared she had been compelled by force of circumstances to don man's apparel. She volunteered no statement as to her past life. She left for Houston.

STREET CAR CONDUCTOR CHARGED WITH MURDER

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The inquest into the death of Dr. Charles Wilcox Townsend, who was shot in bed at his home in New Brighton, Staten Island, some days ago, and later died from his wounds, resulted today in John Bell, a street car conductor, of Brooklyn, being formally declared the man who fired the shot. Bell took his verdict calmly.
He made no statement at the inquest.

The main testimony before the coroner was that given by Bell's brother, Howard, and his brother-in-law, Wm.
Coar. To both of them, the witnesses testified, Bell said he had killed Dr.
Townsend.

AN AGED FRATERNAL SOCIETY MAN DEAD

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Feb. 6.—Major Joseph H. Butt died today of paralysis, in his 86th year. He was the oldest Mason and the oldest Oddfellow in Georgia. During the civil war he was a major on the staff of General Bragg.
For years he edited the Gainesville "Eagle" and for several terms was a member of the Georgia House of Representatives from Hall County. It is said that he was the original "Major Jones" of "Major Jones' courtship," so well known to all Southerners.

EXPLOSION OF METAL MAY RESULT FATALLY

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—An explosion of molten metal, which was accidentally overturned into a pool of cold water at the plant of the Illinois Steel Company, tonight, injured five workmen, two of them fatally, wrecked two smelters and demolished four others, causing a loss of $100,000. The metal was in a huge ladle which is operated on a pivot. Exact blame for the accident has not been established.

LARGE CROWD AT ROLLER CARNIVAL

At the Queen's Rolloway carnival last evening a very large crowd was in attendance. The costumes shown were above the average, but the management thinks that the prizes offered were deserving of an even better class of costumes, especially among the gentlemen. The prize winners were: For best lady's costume, Mrs. F. L. Potts as "Rose Trellis," with costume of lattice work of gold on pale green, and with tea roses entwined; for combination, Misses Panjoy, Billard and Thorne, as Three Fairies; for the most graceful skating couple, Mary Delay and Shirley Peters. Prizes were also given to Guy Olive as a Trapper, and Mr. Andrews as an Englishman. The judges decided that no make-up on the ice was worthy the prize for the best gentleman's costume.

In the guessing contest Mr. Barbary was the winner, guessing correctly the following names: Roselle Knott, who played here in When Knighthood Was in Flower; Marie Booth Russell, who was with Mantell; Rose Stahl of the Thos. E. Shea Company and Raymond Hitchcock of the Great Opera Company. The picture, which could not be identified, was that of Richard Golden, who played in Old Bed Preedy.

In the graceful skating contest six couples were chosen by the judges and skated for the prize. Two extra bands were played.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—At the opening of the trial this morning a sensation was caused by the arrest of a man who spoke to the jurors on their way to court. It is alleged he told them "Vote for Shaw." The man is about twenty years old.
