NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—In a squalid room in a resort known as The Cri-ierion, in the heart of the "Tenderloin" district, was found today the terribly disfigured body of a young mulatto woman. The woman had not been positively identified late tonight. An autopsy showed that she died from strangulation and hemorrhages. Her threat was out and hemorrhages.

Her throat was cut and she was the

Her throat was cut and she was then beaten by her murderer. Her face, neck and chest were frightfully lacer-ated from blows, apperently from a man's fists. Robbery was probably the motive for the crime, for the pockets in the woman's clothes, which were strewed about the room, had been rified. In the room was a penknife covered with blood. The proprietor of the place told the police that when the woman registered there Wednesday she told him she was from Washing-
